Karnataka Contractors' Association to remind PM of State BJP's '40% cut'

Bengaluru: In an embarrassing development for Karnataka's ruling BJP, the State Contractors' Association has decided to write a letter to Prime Minister Narendra Modi reminding him about his promise to act on corruption. The Association had written a letter to the Prime Minister, alleging rampant corruption in the BJP government earlier as ministers and MLAs of ruling party were taking 40 per cent commission in all contracts given by the government.

It said that even after many months, PM Modi has not initiated any action in this regard and it has decided to write a letter again and remind him about the charges that have been made earlier against the ruling party. Kempanna, the President of the State Contractors' Association, has stated that it is over 3 months since the letter was written to PM Modi.

"On Aug 15, PM Modi announced to get this country rid of corruption. The Association is going to convey to PM Modi to fix the issue of corruption in BJP-ruled states first as we are ready to provide evidence for it," he stated.

> "Over Rs 22,000 Cr due from Karnataka Government.

Kempanna questioned why PM Modi is silent towards huge corrupt practices in Karnataka, alleging that the PWD, Health and Family Welfare, Irrigation, Rural Development and Panchayat Raj and other Departments' bills are passed for contractors only after payment to the ministers and officers concerned. He stated that the Association, in its letter to the PM, will provide details along with evidence about corruption. PM should at least now initiate action, Kempanna said.

Now, 13,000 Schools from Karnataka Charge Bommai Govt of Corruption, Write to PM Modi

New Delhi: As many as 13,000 schools, represented by two school management associations, from Karnataka have written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi accusing the Basavaraj Bommai government of serious corruption, NDTV reported.

In their letter to the prime minister, the school management bodies – The Associated Managements Of Primary And Secondary Schools, and The Registered Unaided Private Schools Management Association (RUPSA) – alleged that the state education department had been demanding bribes for various processes involving the department, including for the issuance of recognition certificates to educational institutions.

They squarely placed the blame on state education minister B.C. Nagesh. According to Deccan Herald, RUPSA president Lokesh Talikatte on Friday, August 26, said, "Instead of curbing the corruption in the department, the minister B.C. Nagesh has become greedy and several private schools are on the verge of closure due to his greed."

The letter said several of their appeals to both Nagesh and chief minister Bommai had gone unattended, forcing them to reach out to the prime minister.

Talikattee claimed that block education officers and deputy directors of public instruction (DDPI) had fixed a percentage as a "cut" to process any application. "The department renews recognition of schools every year and no file gets moved without a commission or bribe," he added, according to the Deccan Herald report.

The letter to the prime minister accuses "two different BJP ministers" of causing trouble to schools in the state.

"The education ministry is impatient to listen and understand the actual pathetic situation of the whole system and resolve the issues. Two different BJP ministers literally caused lots of damage to budget schools rather than those schools that are commercialising education by allowing more and more investors to set up, directly costing more fees per child for parents," the letter said, according to NDTV.

"The education minister has no concern to liberalise the rigid norms and frame rules and regulations that both public and private schools can practically and physically implement without burdening parents and students," the letter added.

The signatories of the letter urged the prime minister to launch an investigation into the functioning of the Karnataka education ministry.

Meanwhile, education minister Nagesh dismissed the allegations. "This is not the first time they are making these allegations. If they have proof, let them go to the Lokayukta," he told Deccan Herald.

Karnataka Govt collects 30% commission from mutts: Seer

Bagalkot/Bengaluru: Within a week of civil contractor Santosh Patil committing suicide after accusing then Rural Development and Panchayat Raj minister KS Eshwarappa's associates of demanding a commission to release funds, a Veerashaiva Lingayat seer from North Karnataka accused the state government of demanding a 30 per cent commission to release grants to mutts.

The allegation by the seer, Balehosur Mutt pontiff Dingaleshwara Swami, gave fresh ammo to opposition parties to corner the government on corruption charges, while Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said a thorough probe will be conducted if the seer provides details.

"The government demands a 30 per cent commission to release the grants sanctioned to mutts or temples. Officers not only openly communicate with mutts about the commission, but also make it clear that the work will be carried out only if the commission is given," the seer told TNIE on Monday.

"It is disappointing that corruption has reached new heights in the state. The MLAs have reached such levels that they decide the commission even before the project is officially announced. It is not just my statement, but that of people too. I will stand by my words," he said. He first made the allegation while addressing farmers on Sunday during the valedictory ceremony of Sankalp Yatra, organised by Congress veteran SR Patil, at Badagandi village near Bagalkot.

Responding to the charges, Bommai said a thorough probe will be conducted if the Swamiji provides details. "Dingaleshwara Swamiji is a revered seer and it is not enough if he just gives a statement. If he can provide details as to who demanded the commission, to whom it was paid, and all the related details, then I will ensure a thorough probe," Bommai said.

Govt giving 10% discount to mutts, quips MB Patil

Lashing out at the government, Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee Campaign Committee chairman and MLA MB Patil said, "The government proudly claims that they have sanctioned grants for the development of mutts, but on the other side they demand 30 per cent commission for every project from mutts."

Addressing the media at Chikkodi, he said, "The only difference between contractors and mutts is that the government is giving a 10 per cent discount to the mutts, while contractors have to pay a 40 per cent commission. The pontiff is not levelling false allegations against the government. The corruption is at its peak in the state."

Lokayukta recovers Rs 6 Cr unaccounted cash from BJP MLA's son's house

Bengaluru: Lokayukta sleuths recovered unaccounted cash of more than Rs six crore from the house of BJP MLA K Madal Virupakshappa's son Prashanth Madal close on the heels of his arrest after allegedly accepting a bribe of Rs 40 lakh.

Prashanth, the chief accountant of the Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board, was caught red-handed on Thursday evening while accepting the bribe from a contractor at the Karnataka Soap and Detergents Limited (KSDL) office.

The MLA is the Chairman of KSDL, makers of 'Mysore Sandal' soap. The incident is seen as an embarrassment to the ruling BJP in Karnataka, where Assembly elections are due by May.

In the FIR that has been registered, Virupakshappa is the accused number one and his son is the second accused.

Within hours of the trap, a team of Lokayukta officials raided his house and recovered the unaccounted cash.

Prashanth was allegedly receiving 'first installment' of the bribe on behalf of his father, according to Lokayukta sources.

Facing the heat, Virupakshappa, MLA from Channagiri constituency in Davangere district, today tendered his resignation from the post. In his resignation letter to the Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, he said there is no "relation" between him and the Lokayukta raid which he termed as a conspiracy against him and his family.

"Despite that since an allegation has been levelled against me, I am taking moral responsibility and submitting my resignation from the post of KSDL Chairman", he said.

Karnataka Lokayukta Justice (Retd) B S Patil said today Rs 2.02 crore was recovered from the KSDL office during the search and Rs 6.1 crore from Prashanth's house, totally.

"Five persons have been apprehended and they have been taken into custody", he said, adding an FIR has been registered.

Others named in the FIR are office accountant Surendra, and Prashanth's relative Siddesh and, Albert Nicola and Gangadhar who are field workers in the 'Karnataka Aromas Company'.

Karnataka BJP MLA Basangouda Patil Yatnal alleges he was asked to pay Rs 2,500 crore to become CM

Belagavi: Former Union minister Basangouda Patil Yatnal, the BJP MLA from Vijayapura, stirred yet another controversy by stating that he was asked to arrange Rs 2,500 crore to become a chief minister. He said some leaders from New Delhi met him and gave him the offer, Yatnal said while addressing a programme at Ramdurg on Friday.

Yatnal said he was stunned when he was asked to shell out Rs 2,500 crore to become a chief minister. "I have worked as Union minister under a tall leader like Atal Bihari Vajpayee and was closely associated with leaders like LK Advani, Rajnath Singh and Arun Jaitley. Despite knowing my profile, they asked me to arrange Rs 2,500 crore for the chief minister's post," he added.

Later, Yatnal hit out at former chief minister BS Yediyurappa, saying the latter did not induct him into the cabinet fearing that it would affect the prospects of his son Vijayendra. "I had told Yediyurappa then that I will not enter his chamber or go to Kaveri (the CM's residence) till he remained chief minister. Later, Basavaraj Bommai asked me to meet him when he became the CM. In a closed-door discussion, Bommai admitted that he became CM only because of me (Yatnal)," he added. Yatnal said that though Bommai assured him of a cabinet berth, he refused.

Karnataka Minister KS Eshwarappa booked in contractor's suicide case

Bengaluru: A day after the suicide of a contractor, who was found dead in a lodge in Karnataka's Udupi, the state's minister KS Eshwarappa has been named accused in the police case.

The First Information Report or FIR accuses the minister of driving contractor Santosh Patil to suicide, the reports said.

Earlier, before committing suicide, Patil reportedly sent some messages to a few media houses saying that he was committing suicide and alleged that Eshwarappa was responsible for his death. Reacting to the incident, Eshwarappa had said he had no information about the suicide.

"I have no information. I had filed a case (defamation suit) against him for levelling the charges and the case was admitted. I am learning about the suicide from you (media)," Eshwarappa said.

To a query that Patil had blamed him for his death, the Minister said, "He could have written it but I have no information about it. I have no clue why he wrote my name in the death note and why he accused me. Only he can answer but he is no more."

On March 30, Patil, who had claimed himself to be a BJP worker, alleged that he had executed a work in the RDPR department and wanted the payment but Eshwarappa demanded 40 per cent commission in the Rs four crore work.

The Minister not only rubbished his charge, but also filed a defamation suit against him.

PSI recruitment scam: Audio clip of BJP MLA 'admitting' to taking bribe goes viral

Bengaluru: BJP leader and MLA for Kanakagiri in Koppal district Basavaraj Dhadesugur's name surfaced in the police sub-inspector recruitment scam after an audio clip of his purported telephonic conversation with the father of an aspirant went viral on Monday.

In the audio clip, Mr. Parasappa, the father of the PSI post aspirant, demands Mr. Dhadesugur to return ₹1.5 lakh that he had given about one-and-a-half years ago for getting the post for his son. Mr. Dhadesugur is heard admitting to having accepted the money and promises to return it. Mr. Dhadesugur was also heard reprimanding Mr. Parasappa for discussing the matter with others, who, in turn, were calling him to enquire about it.

"At present, I'm in Bengaluru and I have talked to district president Doddanagouda ... You need not involve a third person. I have received money and given it to the government. I am responsible for it. I will return the money after returning from Bengaluru," Mr. Dhadesugur said in the audio clip.

After the audio clip went viral, Mr. Dhadesugur denied that he had accepted the money by stating that he was only mediating between the two meaning that one who gave the money and other who accepted it.

"This is the problem between the two people. Both of them came to me with a request to resolve it and I promised them to do so. I have nothing to do with their problem," he told mediapersons in Koppal on Monday.

Demand for arrest

Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee's publicity committee head M.B. Patil, who was in Koppal on Monday, urged the government to arrest Mr. Dhadesugur and interrogate him in the PSI recruitment scam.

"In the audio clip that went viral, Mr. Dhadesugur admitted that he had accepted money [from the father of a PSI post aspirant] and gave it to the government. The government should answer. The police should immediately arrest and interrogate Mr. Dhadesugur to unearth more details about his and others' involvement in the scam," Mr. Patil told media persons after visiting Gavimath in the city.

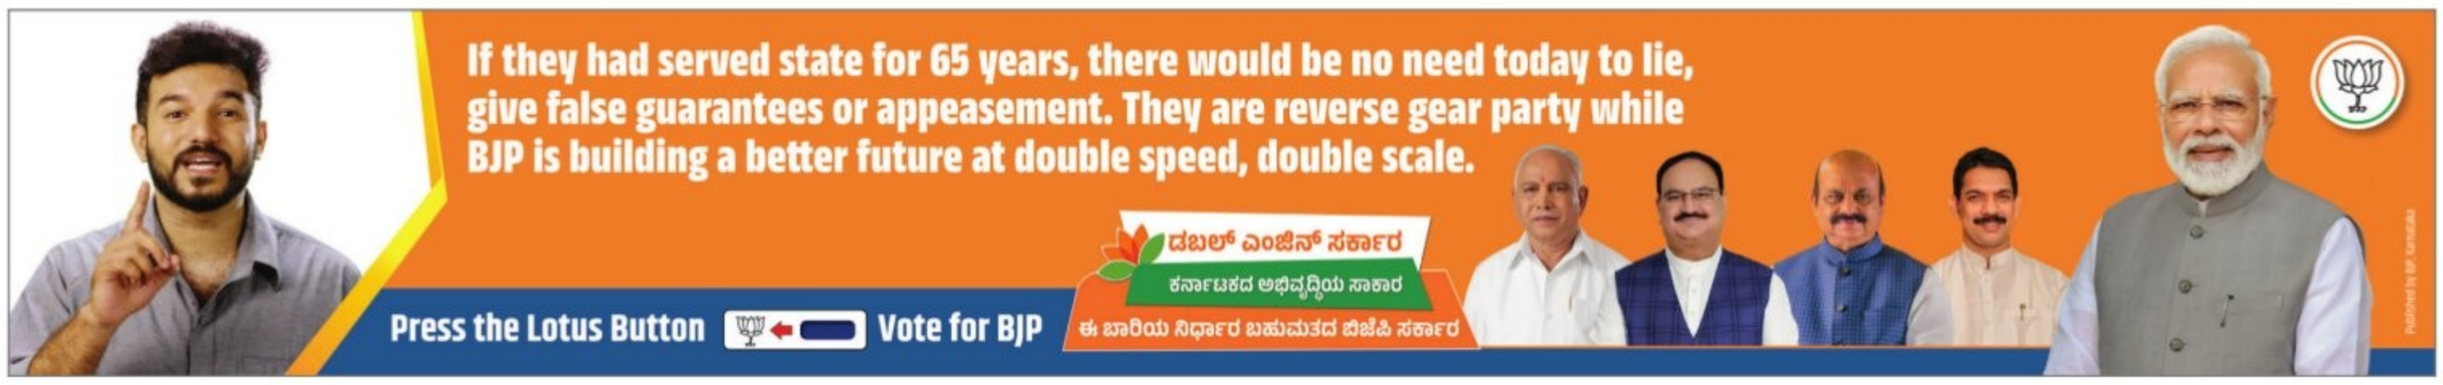
COVID NO LONGER AN EMERGENCY: WHO

The World Health Organization said on Friday that Covid-19 no longer qualifies as a global emergency. However, it said even though the emergency phase was over, the pandemic hasn't come to an end, noting recent spikes in cases in Southeast Asia and the Middle East. The UN health agency took the decision to lower its highest level of alert on Friday, after convening an expert group on Thursday.



If they had served state for 65 years, there would be no need today to lie, give false guarantees or appeasement. They are reverse gear party while BJP is building a better future at double speed, double scale.

HC declines to stop rallies, roadshows

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

OBSERVING that elections are treated as festivals in India, the High Court of Karnataka on Friday declined to stop rallies and roadshows by political parties, including Prime Minister Narendra Modi's roadshows in Bengaluru on May 6 and 7.

Right from the first Lok Sabha elections in 1952, there are records to show that rallies were held... Political rallies disseminate knowledge and information about the election process to the public at large. The apex court in the Lilly Thomas vs Union of India case observed that there is a need for dissemination of knowledge to the public at large since democracy requires the exercise of knowledge choice by the electorate and this purpose is served by rallies, the court said.

A vacation division bench of Justice Krishna S Dixit and Justice Vijaykumar A Patil passed the order while closing the public interest litigation filed by city-based advocate NP Amrutesh, seeking a ban roadshows, including the two to be held by BJP in Bengaluru, on the ground that they will disrupt normal life.

The court heard the city police commissioner, district election officer, additional advocate general, and representatives of ECI on the preparedness to avoid inconvenience to the people and to prevent any untoward incidents during roadshows. P7

Cong opposes truth in any form, says Modi

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @ Ballari

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Friday hit out at Congress for its "vote bank" politics and said it is now opposing screening of "Kerala Story ", a film said to be based on real stories of how innocent non-Muslim girls are recruited for the Islamic State. It is unfortunate that the Grand Old Party always opposes truth in any form.

At a rally in Ballari, Modi said Congress has a soft corner for terrorism. It is not worried about the development of the country. Terrorism is the biggest threat to development and humanity. It's time for people to think about the Congress.

He said damage to the tradition of the country is the new way of terrorism. People of the country need not worry about terror if BJP is in power. "We are capable of stopping such activities. Balakot airstrike is one of the best examples. Earlier, there used to be no reaction to terror attacks. After BJP came to power at the Centre, immediate actions such as surgical air strike, have been taken.

Stating that the BJP is always with the people of the country, he referred to 'Operation Kaveri' to evacuate Indians, especially Hakki-Pikki tribals, from war-torn Sudan. "Our Air Force and Navy brought them home safely," he said.

Modi appealed to the people to vote for BJP to make Karnataka No 1 state in the country.

He said while Congress believes in corrupt politics, BJP believes in the country's development. Through fake poll surveys, Congress leaders are claiming that their party will come to power in Karnataka. But the people of the state have decided to keep Congress away.

Jaishankar tears into Pak on Kashmir terror

Says victims do not sit together with the perpetrators of terrorism; Art 370 history now

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

WHILE India and Pakistan took a veiled swipe at each other at the Shanghai Corporation Organisation (SCO) meeting of foreign ministers in Goa on Friday, they became acerbic after the conclave with External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar saying the only issue left to discuss is when they will vacate Pakistan Occupied Kashmir.

He made the remarks after his Pakistani counterpart Bilawal Bhutto raked up the Kashmir issue in his interaction with his country's media.

"We have only one issue with Pakistan, which is when will they vacate Pakistan Occupied Kashmir... Pakistan's credibility is depleting faster than its forex reserves," Jaishankar sarcastically said.

While Bilawal said both countries wanted peace adding he was ready to open talks if the atmosphere was congenial, Jaishankar called out his duplicity on talking peace while sponsoring terror in the same breath. While ruling out restoring ties till the issue of terror is resolved, Jaishankar said perpetrators of terrorism cannot act like victims.

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar greets his Pakistani counterpart Bilawal Bhutto at the SCO conclave in Goa on Friday | ANI

"We are politically and diplomatically exposing Pakistan to the world. Victims of terrorism (India) do not sit together with perpetrators of terrorism. They are committing acts of terror, which include the incident of what happened in Rajouri this morning," said Jaishankar. He claimed it was part of Pakistan's old playbook being articulated from a different location, Goa.

As for Bilawal raking up Kashmir's special status, Jaishankar said Article 370 is history. "Wake up and smell the coffee is what I would like to tell Pakistan as Article 370 is history. I would also like to reaffirm that Kashmir was, is and will always remain an integral part of India."

He also rebutted Pakistan's objections to holding a G20 meet in Srinagar, saying it has no business speaking about G20, as it is neither its member nor does it have anything to do with Kashmir.

At the SCO meeting, Jaishankar demanded tough action against terror in all its manifestations, including cross-border terror. Bilawal, however, sought to brush it aside saying nobody should be getting caught up in "weaponising terrorism for diplomatic point-scoring".

While Jaishankar said, "We must not allow anybody — individual or state — to hide behinds non-state actors," Bilawal, in his address, said, "We must stop conflating non-state actors with state actors."

Bilawal agreed he was treated fairly during his visit; Jaishankar said as a foreign minister of an SCO member-state, he was treated accordingly.

On the China-Pakistan Economic Corridor, Jaishankar said connectivity cannot violate territorial integrity.

BILAWAL PROMOTER OF TERROR INDUSTRY: GOVT

Jaishankar described Bilawal Bhutto as a "promoter, justifier and spokesperson" of the terror industry in Pakistan. Earlier in the day, Bilawal had made a loaded comment on India holding a G20 meet in Srinagar: "Obviously we condemn it and at the time we will give such a response that it will be remembered."

5 soldiers killed in Rajouri terror attack

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

A fortnight after a militant attack on an Army vehicle left five soldiers dead, the terrorists targeted the Army again on Friday by triggering a powerful explosion in the thickly forested Kandi area of the border district of Rajouri in Jammu and Kashmir, killing five soldiers and injuring another.

The attack took place on a day when Pakistan Foreign minister Bilawal Bhutto was attending the SCO foreign ministers' meeting in Goa.

The deceased soldiers were identified as L/Nk Ruchin Singh Rawat R/o Kunigad, Uttarakhand; paratrooper Siddhant Chettri R/o Pulbazar, West Bengal; Naik Arvind Kumar R/o Marhoon, Himachal Pradesh; Havaldar Neelam Singh R/o Akhnoor, J&K and paratrooper Pramod Negi R/o Shillai, Himachal Pradesh.

Friday's was the seventh major attack in the border district of Poonch and Rajouri in the past 19 months. In all, 26 soldiers have lost their lives.

Defence spokesman Lt Colonel Devender Anand said acting on specific information about the presence of militants in the Kandi forest area, the Army, police and paramilitary forces launched a joint operation on May 3. Highly trained paratroopers were also part of the anti-militancy operation.

Around 7.30 am on Friday, the Army's search team established contact with a group of militants entrenched in a cave, the spokesman said.

The area, where the encounter took place, was thickly vegetated with rocky and steep cliffs. During the encounter, militants triggered a powerful explosion in which two soldiers were killed on the spot and four others including an officer were injured, the spokesman said. The four injured Army men were immediately evacuated to an Army hospital in Udhampur, where three of them succumbed to injuries.

Centre takes charge of Manipur security by invoking Article 355

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Centre has taken charge of the security of violence-hit Manipur by invoking Article 355, sources told this newspaper on Friday. Article 355 empowers the Centre to take necessary steps to protect a state against internal disturbances and external aggression.

Also, Union Home Minister Amit Shah has cancelled his Karnataka election programmes to closely monitor the Manipur situation.

The Manipur government has appointed ADGP (intelligence) Ashutosh Sinha the operational commander to control the situation. He will report to former CRPF chief Kuldiep Singh, who has been appointed security advisor.

The Army said a total of 13,000 affected people have been rescued and given accommodation within their campus.

The Air Force undertook a number of sorties from two airfields in Assam to strengthen troops deployment.

Uneasy calm prevailed in the state on Friday as curfew continued in the affected districts. Violence seemed to ebb with the Imphal Valley remaining peaceful though intermittent gunfights between militant groups and security forces were reported from the hill districts surrounding the valley.

BJP MLA Vungzagin Valte, who was grievously injured in an attack by a mob in the state capital on Thursday, was on Friday flown to Delhi for specialised treatment.

NEET tweaks Modi's roadshow schedule

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE state BJP has changed Prime Minister Narendra Modi's roadshow schedule in Bengaluru. The party first decided to hold the roadshow on Saturday. It later decided to hold the roadshow on Saturday and Sunday. It again made changes in the schedule, keeping in mind the conduct of NEET on Sunday.

As per the changed schedule, the major part of the roadshow will be completed on Saturday.

BJP state election coordination committee convenor and Union minister Shobha Karandlaje told reporters on Friday that changes have been made to avoid inconvenience to people. In view of NEET on Sunday afternoon, the roadshow will end early. Modi has directed the state BJP leaders not to cause inconvenience to students. Students can show their NEET hall tickets and the police will drop them at their examination centres, she said.

According to the minister, on Saturday, the PM will start his roadshow at Someshwar Bhavan near RBI Grounds at 10 am and reach Sankey Road by 1.30 pm, covering 26.5 km. On Sunday, the PM's roadshow will begin from near the Kempegowda statue at Thippasandra and end at Trinity Circle, which is around 8 km.

"If the roadshow is held in a single day, it will cause inconvenience to the people. Hence, it has been decided to hold it for two days," she said. Earlier, the party planned to hold the roadshow on Saturday, covering 36 km in 17 Assembly constituencies. This was opposed by many as it would cause traffic jams.

Students likely to be affected

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

DESPITE multiple rescheduling efforts undertaken by the BJP for Prime Minister Narendra Modi's roadshow in Bengaluru, many students who are appearing for NEET and Chartered Accountant exams may still be affected.

The majority of the rally will now take place on Saturday and the rest will be wrapped up by 11.30 am, before NEET begins. While NEET is scheduled for Sunday, the Chartered Accountant exams are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday. Various student organisations have criticised the Election Commission of India (ECI) for not taking into account the examinations when permitting the rallies. In Bengaluru, over 4,000 students will appear for the CA exams in around 20 centres, in addition to lakhs of students for NEET.

According to the Bengaluru branch of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI), many student centres are located on the stretch where the rally is to take place.

Meanwhile, the Karnataka Private School Managements, Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff Coordination Committee (KPMTCC) on Friday sent a complaint to the Chief Election Commissioner, stating that many students will face hardships due to the roadshow.

Residents a confused lot

The various changes made to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's roadshow scheduled on Saturday and Sunday has created confusion among city residents. "Blocking community gates in residential areas from 6 am to 2 pm and restricting the movement of residents is not logical. People should have the right to move. Ideally, rallies should not be held in residential areas as it leads to traffic problems. Rallies should be limited to large areas," said Anand Mangalam, a resident of JP Nagar. Citizens said that the party must be meticulous and not confuse them. Better planning and communication will prevent such confusion and citizens can plan their day well in advance, residents said. The PM should reschedule his roadshow planned for Sunday as it may put thousands of students appearing for NEET to inconvenience. If at all he has concern, the PM should postpone the roadshow

PM's rally will have no impact: Cong leaders

The rally will not make a big difference as people have decided to teach the BJP a lesson, said Congress leaders Ramaliga Reddy and K J George. Reddy noted that despite the PM's roadshows and mass appeal, the BJP lost in Himachal Pradesh and West Bengal. The party even lost in Telangana, Bihar, Odisha, Punjab, Tamil Nadu and Kerala as well as the municipal elections in Delhi. George added that in 2018, Modi campaigned in Bengaluru, but still the Congress won 15 seats while BJP managed just 11. The leaders said the PM will come and go but he will not discuss the issue of price rise and unemployment. ENS

Stay away from these roads

BENGALURU: The city police have made elaborate security arrangements across the city, especially on roads where PM Narendra Modi will be holding the roadshow. More than 5,000 policemen have been deployed while 2,500 traffic policemen will be on the ground to ensure that traffic is not affected.

MODI TO GET MARIGOLD SHOWER

Bengaluru: With PM Narendra Modi set to campaign in Bengaluru over the weekend, BJP leaders want to ensure the roadshow leaves an impact on the city voter. Party workers have erected saffron flags along the entire stretch, and are making arrangements for a ceremonial flower shower for his convoy along the roadshow route. Accordingly, the demand for orange and yellow marigold, whose colour syncs with the saffron party, has shot up. Flower vendors in City Market are arranging for one tonne of flowers which will be distributed among workers, said Uday Garudachar. GN Diwakar, president, City Market Flower Merchant Association, said marigold flowers are used for such rallies, and their demand has shot up due to PM Modi's roadshow. — Mohammed Yacoob

Once a close aide, now Ravi's rival in C'magaluru

B THIPPERUDRAPPA
@Chikkamagaluru

WITH the exit of Lingayat leader HD Thammaiah, a 14-year-old associate of BJP national general secretary and Chikkamagaluru MLA CT Ravi, the election for this seat has turned into a battle of prestige for the saffron party.

Thammaiah joined the Congress last February, and Ravi, who has been on a winning spree since 2004, has had to work out a new strategy to gain the trust of Lingayats, who have supported him all along. Lingayats, who are in sizable numbers, are the deciding factor for the BJP and Congress.

The Congress leaders' plan was to humble Ravi by fielding a Lingayat candidate. Among six ticket aspirants, were two Lingayats -- Mahadimane Sathish and BH Harish. Sathish is the block Congress president of Sakrayapatna hobli, and his influence is limited. Harish, who had contested on a JDS ticket in 2018 and polled 37,988 votes, had switched to the Congress and was hopeful of the party ticket, following KPCC president DK Shivakumar's assurance.

In the meantime, Ravi's close associate Thammaiah fell out with him, and hopped to the Congress, which had to select one among the Lingayat aspirants. After a series of meetings and deliberations from the block level to the top, the Congress high command saw a formidable candidate in Thammaiah and announced his candidature just two days ahead of the date for filing nominations. All aspirants, after some persuasion, agreed to work for the party candidate.

Thammaiah was basically a Congress man and CMC member and president in 1996, and is a good organiser and speaker. His forte is that, as a BJP insider, he knows the ins and outs of the BJP's electoral strategy. During his tenure, he had earned the goodwill of micro-communities and minorities by taking up welfare schemes. Some sections say he is a frequent party-hopper, and the general belief is that he cannot wield complete influence on the Lingayat community.

Thammaiah said his aim is to ensure Ravi's defeat. People are fed up with rampant corruption, allegedly nurtured by Ravi and his cousin in contracts, and this, along with Lingayat anger, will work in his favour, he said.

George meets voters, seeks vote in the name of development and Cong guarantees

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

FORMER minister and senior Congress leader KJ George went around the Sarvagna Nagar constituency in Bengaluru on Friday, interacting with voters in Kalyan Nagar, Lingarajapuram and Kanakadasa Layout and meeting masjid committee members in Hennur and KG Halli wards.

At Hennur Tree Park, he asked citizens to vote for him based on the development works done. George told The New Indian Express that his Assembly constituency lacks many development projects and drinking water needs of many citizens are yet to be met. During his tenure as an MLA and minister, he implemented many projects, he added. The condition of 20 government schools was improved with corporate social responsibility (CSR) funds from various companies, he said.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi's blitzkrieg of roadshows in Bengaluru and the Congress manifesto promising a ban on PFI and Bajrang Dal being turned into a major poll issue by BJP would not make any difference as people have seen price rise and communal issues, he maintained.

The Sarvagna Nagar Assembly segment has eight BBMP wards of Nagawara, HBR Layout, KG Halli, Lingarajpuram, Maruthiseva Nagar, Kacharakanahalli, Banaswadi and Kammanahalli with over 3.5 lakh voters, including one lakh Muslims who are the deciding factor. There are also sizeable Christian and Tamil voters in Lingarajapuram, Maruthi Sevanagar and Banaswadi wards.

The segment has some sensitive areas, where law and order incidents have been reported. Resident welfare associations have complained about noise and illegal activities in layouts like Kammanahalli, Banaswadi and Hennur. His principal opponent Padmanabha Reddy is contesting on a BJP ticket. Though the saffron party had raised issues like DySP Ganapathi's suicide and roping in former IPS officer Kempaiah to oversee police department operations against George in the 2018 elections, he still managed to win. He hopes for a repeat in this election too.

JDS has fielded a Muslim candidate, Mustafa, who is originally from Kolar. SDPI has fielded Abdul Hannan hoping to cash in on Muslim votes.

06th May : Some people I know think it would be a good thing if all politicians used astrology, but I'm not so sure. In France, Presidents de Gaulle and Mitterand were both fans, as was American President Ronald Reagan. And, as we know, here in India, many of our leading politicians have their personal astrologers. We wish them well!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Long journeys and spiritual adventures are favoured. Plus, if you are setting out to tackle legal questions or concerned with higher education in any shape or form, you should do well. You will benefit from the Moon's helpful location, whatever your precise circumstances.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You may look back over the past week and consider that you have really done rather well, all things considered. An absence of stressful planetary aspects today and tomorrow gives you some space to rest. In fact, you can benefit from a wonderfully romantic relationship between Venus and Neptune.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The signs are that warring factions have now settled their differences. If peace has broken out, you will be able to take advantage of the fact that this is an optimum time for holidays, adventures and long-distance journeys. Hopefully, you are free to exploit such opportunities.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You could be in for a working weekend. Not, perhaps, in the formal sense of carrying out paid employment, more in that you'll be pursuing chores that are leading towards some important long-term goal. It's not just a matter of doing what you want, either, but of helping other people with their plans.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
The emphasis is still very much on what can only be described as partnership or joint interests. You have a very great deal indeed to gain from a number of new associations and personal connections. But it may be next week before you can really see the full picture.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
The Sun and Mercury are still helping you clear up a number of personal uncertainties. You may let others make the first move and don't try to force intensely personal issues. 'Go with the flow' as the modern mystics say, and see what happens. You never know - you may have your eyes opened!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
If money appears to be in short supply the reason may lie in recent mismanagement, but the underlying causes seem to stretch way back to the distant past and a host of attitudes to finances that were unfortunately foisted upon you. You'll soon have a chance to make your own way.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
It seems that loved ones are now ready to move forward but you occupy an important role in their affairs and must be ready to confer your approval, support and blessing. As far as your own affairs are concerned, make money matters your priority. Perhaps you actually need to make more money!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The Moon cruises into a highly promising position. Thus, by the time you wake up, the vague traumas of recent days should be a thing of the past and you'll be free to enjoy the weekend in peace. You could even pick up a bargain or make an unexpected profit.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You may have difficulty making sense of the world today. Perhaps the odd things that people say will seem to lack meaning - or the facts will be at variance with what you had come to expect. But that's often the case at this point in the lunar cycle.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Your planetary ruler, Saturn, has benefited from a long series of harmonious aspects, which means that you should be in a relatively strong and secure position. At any rate, circumstances are on your side, mainly because you can stick to your guns.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
At the moment, you are restricted by old ties and obligations, but don't over-dramatise things. You are a master of disguise, able to change your manner and appearance, and it is a simple enough matter for you to slip out of trouble. One minute you're here, the next you're miles away!

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Aam Party Party (AAP) has promised quality education for all and universal free healthcare besides assuring voters of dignified living, in its election manifesto released on Friday.

Like in New Delhi, AAP Karnataka has promised to build government schools that are better than private institutions and ensure government-guaranteed bank loans for higher education, besides mandating fee committees to fix and regulate private school fees. Also, the manifesto mentioned that contract teachers will get permanent jobs and create at least two schools of applied learning in each district.

On the health front, the party has promised to provide comprehensive healthcare to all citizens under which medicines till full surgery will be provided free of cost. The party also proposed to develop 10 education hubs, health hubs and tourism hubs across the state besides a dense road network and high-quality bus services.

The manifesto lists out the party's development plans district-wise with a special focus on Bengaluru, where it plans to set up a Bangalore Infrastructure Development Agency (BIDA), which will be in charge of all infrastructure works in the city. Jairam warns of 'puppet' govt if BJP wins in '24

@Mysuru

STATING that the double-engine BJP government failed to deliver on its promises, former Union minister and Rajya Sabha MP Jairam Ramesh said the BJP will install a puppet regime in Karnataka and remote control it from Delhi.

Addressing a press meet here on Friday, the senior Congress leader said the Bharat Jodo Yatra strengthened and united the Congress and its positive impact will be seen in the elections. "I travelled across Karnataka for 23 days during Bharat Jodo which helped me get the pulse of the people and the ground reality. The wave is already in favour of the Congress and the five guarantee schemes announced by the party will have a positive outcome in the election," he said.

Rajya Sabha member Jairam Ramesh addresses mediapersons in Mysuru on Friday | EXPRESS

He said this time, the anger over ticket allocation was less in Congress when compared to the BJP. "Former chief minster and former deputy chief minister were denied tickets which resulted in rebel trouble for the BJP besides increased dissidence. All this factors will have its implications in the election," he said.

Taking a jibe at Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Ramesh said Modi is coming often to Karnataka and the people have already expressed their discomfort they face due to his visits.

"The BJP is so much dependent on him that the party will use him even for municipal and panchayat elections," he said.

3 more flights with Sudan evacuees reach Bengaluru

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THREE more flights reached Bengaluru on Friday with 97 flyers from Sudan. While two flights came from Jeddah, a flight brought people from Addis Ababa for the first time. Two passengers have been sent for quarantine at the Rajiv Gandhi Institute for Chest Diseases.

With the evacuation on friday, a total of 439 residents of Karnataka have returned through Operation Kaveri by now. While Bengaluru has operated five flights for the same, Delhi, Mumbai, Ahmedabad and Kochi too have repatriated those from their states.

The first flight to arrive from Addis Ababa reached Bengaluru at 8 am with 18 passengers, the second with 53 flyers arrived from Jeddah at 11 am, while the third came from Jeddah via Delhi with 26 flyers.

A release from Manoj Rajan, Commissioner, Karnataka State Disaster Management Authority and Nodal Officer for Karnataka said, "The most extraordinary task was bringing the Indians stranded in Al Fashir town to Port Sudan located 1,800 km to the west, for which two buses were arranged by the Indian embassy.

Veterans on double duty for their young ones

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

EVEN when he is campaigning in BTM Layout, Congress veteran and KPCC working president R Ramalinga Reddy has a keen eye on adjoining constituency Jayanagar, where daughter Soumya Reddy is contesting. Ever since the party got feedback that she needs to put in much more effort to win, Reddy Sr has been strategising with Jayanagar Congress workers.

He is not the only one. Across the political spectrum, parents are pushing for the victory of their offspring, while fighting their own election battles.

In Davanagere, Shamanur Shivashankarappa (92) and son SS Mallikarjun are both in the fray. The senior leader, who is also president of Veerashaiva Lingayat Mahasabha, heads a formidable army of volunteers and supporters.

In Vijayanagar, former minister M Krishnappa is working hard for the victory of son Priya Krishna, who lost in 2018, from Govindrajnagar. AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge is keeping track of son Priyank's constituency Chittapur, despite his busy schedule and statewide campaign tour.

Former CM BS Yediyurappa may not be in the thick of battle, but is working behind the scenes to pull off a big victory for son BY Vijayendra from his pocketborough Shikaripura.

At times, it could take a toll, as in the case of TB Jayachandra, who heroically fought for his son Santosh in 2018, but both father and son lost.

The JDS story is more intriguing. In Ramanagara, papa HD Kumaraswamy and grandpapa HD Deve Gowda are personally overseeing Nikhil Kumaraswamy's campaign, though Kumaraswamy is himself contesting from Channapatna. Mother and former MLA Anitha Kumaraswamy sacrificed her seat for Nikhil, and is working for both father and son. GT Deve Gowda may be contesting from Chamundeshwari, but has his attention on Hunsur, where son Harish is contesting.

Mothers are not far behind either. Former minister C Motamma is propping up daughter Nayana's campaign, and former Union minister and governor Margaret Alva is networking with supporters and workers for son Nivedith Alva.

Manjula Karadi, contesting from Koppal, is getting a big push from father-in-law and Koppal MP Sanganna Karadi. Former Mahadevpura MLA Arvind Limbavali is busy meeting party workers for wife Manjula's campaign.

Every 3 hrs, IMD gives rain updates to SPG

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

IN addition to updating weather reports and keeping a watch on cloud formation, the India Meteorological Department (IMD) officials have got another task at hand.

Now they have to provide weather updates every three hours to the Special Protection Group (SPG) of the Prime Minister, especially regarding rainfall. They are also updating the district commissioners (DCs) and all other political parties of the weather conditions of each region.

"In the initial phase of election campaign, nobody enquired whether it was hot or peak of summer, and the pre-monsoon showers were also delayed. Now, as the pre-monsoon showers have intensified and the poll campaign is pacing up, the frequency of enquiry has increased. We get no less than 15 calls per day asking for weather updates. We have even created various groups on different social media platforms to keep everyone updated," said an official from the IMD.

The official added that special attention is paid to weather details when national leaders and heads of political parties hold road shows.

Apart from Bengaluru's weather update, details of Haveri, Badami, Shivamogga, Mysuru, Nanjangud and Ballari are asked by the district administration officials, the IMD officials said.

The officials said that this is different from the usual experience, where they would get calls from farmers and even citizens hosting events, weddings and outdoor parties, who would call up during this time of the year to know when and where it would rain.

"Party workers seek suggestions to decide the suitable timings to schedule public rallies, and if there is any rain forecast for that duration of time, some also ask for exact locations of rainfall, which is not possible to know," said the officials.

JDS MAY BE LOSING BASE IN ITS BASTION

Haradanahalli, a small village in Hassan district, is where JDS supremo Deve Gowda started his political career | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Hassan

"In 1962 and 1967, when he (HD Deve Gowda) contested as an independent in two consecutive elections, we had pushed his bicycle (his symbol). A person from this tiny hilly area went on to hoist the national flag at Red Fort in New Delhi. He has done so much for Hassan. The next generation of politicians is here, but our loyalties to Gowda and his party will not change," said 78-year-old Subraya Gowda, a resident of Haradanahalli.

This tiny village in the Holenarasipura Assembly segment is where JDS supremo Deve Gowda started his political career. Over the years, he has built a phenomenal political base, earlier for Janata Party and now for JDS, in Hassan district. While six constituencies in the district have JDS MLAs, the Hassan constituency itself is with BJP, represented by Preetham J Gowda.

Deve Gowda, despite his age — 90, and ailments, took out a roadshow on Thursday evening in the constituency seeking votes for the party candidate HP Swaroop.

The district, which is agriculture-oriented, is dominated by Vokkaligas, Muslims, SCs and OBCs, while there is a small presence of Lingayats.

Wasim Pasha, who runs a bicycle shop on Salagame Road in Hassan town, said his choice of candidate this time is Preetham because of the development works the young MLA has taken up.

Pasha's neighbour NS Narasimha Murthy, too, seconded him, saying that when Preetham could do so much as a first-time MLA, there is hope that he could do more in his second term.

Voters here said that Preetham helped people during the difficult Covid times, constructed houses at Siddaiah Nagar slum, and ensured new underground drainage lines and concrete roads were laid, all in the last five years.

Swaroop, however, is putting up a spirited fight. Both Preetham and Swaroop belong to the Mullu Vokkaliga sub-sect, while Deve Gowda is a Dasa Vokkaliga. A strong pitch from Deve Gowda could change equations here, local people say.

Sakleshpur, 40 km from Hassan, is represented by JDS MLA HK Kumaraswamy, but he is facing a tough fight from Congress in this election. In Belur, the contest is between JDS and BJP. Indira Bai from Javagal in Belur constituency said a majority of voters supported JDS all these years, but there are winds of change this time, as they want to give BJP a chance this time, hoping for development.

JDS may find it difficult to retain both constituencies.

At Arsikere, too, JDS may not be the flavour of the season. MLA Shivalingegowda, who quit JDS and joined Congress, looks to romp home, predicted Sridhar, a resident. "Before 2008, this was a Congress bastion. But in the last three elections, Shivalingegowda won from JDS. This year, now that he has joined Congress, he will garner more votes," he said.

But it is JDS all the way at Holenarsipura, Arkalgud and Shravanabelagola. Ramesh, a farmer from Arkalgud, said, "We cannot forget what Deve Gowda has done for Hassan district. We cannot even think of voting for a BJP or Congress here," he said.

Ravi from Haradanahalli said that Deve Gowda's son HD Revanna, too, has done a lot of work. Shreyas Patel, the grandson of Puttaswamy Gowda who defeated Deve Gowda in 1989 at Holenarsipura, is contesting against Revanna. He is putting up a spirited fight, though Revanna has a firm grip on the constituency. In 2018, JDS candidates from all the seven Assembly segments got 5.69 lakh votes in all, as against Congress' 3.76 lakh and BJP's 2.04 lakh. Following year, Prajwal Revanna, who was contesting the Lok Sabha elections, won by a margin of over 6 lakh votes, as he was a JDS-Congress coalition candidate. This time, the equation may change.

Teach BJP's Preetham a lesson: Gowda to voters

Hassan: JDS supremo HD Deve Gowda on Friday urged the voters of Hassan to teach a lesson to BJP candidate and incumbent MLA Preetham J Gowda. Addressing a gathering here, the former PM said that wants to see the defeat of Preetham who allegedly put brakes on various development projects sanctioned during the JDS government in Hassan. Gowda said that will fight for pressing issues till his last breath and wants to see his son HD Kumaraswamy as the CM. He also slammed PM Modi for neglecting the proposal to set up an IIT in Hassan.

Informed choice, aspiration, ideology: BJP manifesto's strength

A political party will leave no stone unturned to endear itself to the voters, to secure its place in corridors of power. For that to happen, a constant engagement, two-way communication and inspiring leadership is sine qua non. BJP as a political party has made this its second nature. Continuous organisational engagement with voters all through five years is the BJP's biggest strength. Coupled with the inspiring leadership of Prime Minister Modi, we have a winner on hand.

Dr Samir Kagalkar (PhD IIMB)
is state co-convenor of the BJP manifesto committee

Two-way communication – both through party and official mechanism – is a visible trait of the BJP government, both at the Centre and states. The constant feedback loop from citizens makes BJP a formidable force, as the focus is always on the common man's aspirations. These aspirations of the common citizens have increased by leaps and bounds – with an active encouragement by the Modi government. After all, the PM leads the country to aspire big – to become a $10 trillion economy by 2030, or a fully developed country by 2047, or a force to reckon with in the international arena.

As one comes closer to elections, what should the political parties do? Put themselves ahead of the country, that is, work only to achieve power for themselves at all costs, or put the country above them (use power to bring about big positive transformation)? BJP is clear that it is always "Nation First". Every activity that BJP does – be it as part of our election campaign or governance, it is geared towards this goal.

Having been an active member of the manifesto committee as its state co-convenor, I had the opportunity to experience the firsthand "aspirational choice" of voters. One poor middle-aged lady was very candid, saying – after she heard my education & work profile – that she looks forward from the BJP government to a similar opportunity for her daughter ("I want to see her as a big officer," in her words in Kannada). Farmers of North Karnataka were more vocal – they looked forward to a sustainable income source for a long term. A huge pride in government schools with the hope that they produce more Visvesvarayas rather than chase exorbitant private sector schools for status symbol was what we heard from poorer sections (that inspired us to name the education scheme after Sir MV in our manifesto for school rejuvenation).

BJP's ideology of Antyodaya – that believes that society must provide the basic dignity of life (Anna, Akshara, Arogya) to the poorest of the poor – finds its prime focus in the BJP manifesto. At the same time, our ideology also puts aspirations of our society in a contextual Indian manner ("the third way" as Dattopant Thengde put it – rejecting both pure socialism and capitalism) that should lead to better development and income. It is reflected well in our vision — Abhivruddhi and Aadaya. Finally, for a society to lead a good life, fearlessness is important – that is taken care of with the Abhaya concept – away from the fear of poverty, hatred, ill-health etc.

If one has to sum up the BJP manifesto – it is about an excellent balance of government's duties towards the poor and weak i.e, Anna, Akshara, Arogya, while at the same time supporting their aspirations by abhivruddhi (development) for a better aadaya (income).

How did this outcome of 103 promises with top 16 promises under six focus areas happen? The robust time tested process of BJP ensured this – with samvada meetings in over 179 constituencies, 38 sector meets, 1,043 inputs from 94 experts, 44,000 inputs via digital mode and a massive 5.87 lakh paper inputs via large meetings, yatras and personal discussions.

This is apart from our own research work of the last six months. While the credit should go to the BJP's manifesto team for a good outcome, it should also go to the people's participation and expression of their aspirations to build a better Karnataka. This is the true spirit of democracy that BJP stands for.

Priyank says he highlighted PM's rhetoric for Banjaras

ENS @ Kalaburagi

CHITTAPUR Congress MLA Priyank Kharge on Friday replied to the Election Commission's notice over his alleged violation of the model code of conduct (MCC) ahead of the May 10 Karnataka Assembly elections.

In his reply to the EC, the MLA has denied violating the MCC. The notice was issued following a complaint lodged earlier this week with the ECI by BJP leaders Piyush Goyal, Anil Baluni and Om Pathak, that Priyank had, at a press conference in Kalaburagi on April 30, called Prime Minister Narendra Modi a "nalayak beta."

Priyank, in his reply, said the allegations are completely and wholly unfounded. The legislator said that he only referred to PM Modi's "empty rhetoric" for the Banjara community at an election rally as "nalayak" (inept). The complainants stated that they find what Priyank said to be abusive and that he allegedly invoked caste, thus attempting to create disaffection between voters and citizens.

Priyank has said that he is ready to make any sacrifice and to accept any punishment for raising the voice of the under-privileged, the poor and his brothers and sisters of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes of Karnataka. Priyank said he respects the PM, but no one including the PM, has the authority to trample upon the rights of Karnataka's SCs/STs and to mock or ridicule them.

Priyank said in his reply that he does not think that anyone, including the PM or the EC can understand the agony, anguish and the immeasurable pain suffered by himself and others belonging to the Scheduled Tribes of Karnataka.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi takes out a roadshow in Tumakuru on Friday

Defence sector was 'club' for Cong to loot: Modi

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Tumakuru

CONTINUING his attack on the Congress ahead of next week's Karnataka Assembly elections, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday said that the Grand Old Party depended on defence imports for 85% commission.

Addressing a rally at the Government Junior College Grounds in Tumakuru, the PM said that during the Congress regime at the Centre, no defence deal happened without a commission.

Taking a dig at former Congress president Rahul Gandhi for his allegations of irregularities in the Rafale deal and the deal taking away jobs from Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL), Modi asked why the former MP and other Congress leaders have stopped talking about the PSU now. "They spread lies about 4-5 years ago. They tried to mislead the HAL workers," Modi said. "For the Congress, the defence sector was a club where mamas (maternal uncles), chachas (paternal uncles) and relatives could loot the nation. This is Congress' 85% commission. It has destroyed HAL," he said. The PM said that in this election, the Congress leaders were not talking about HAL as the PSU was for the first time since its inception making record profit. "The BJP government has set up a modern factory to manufacture defense equipment as part of its 'Make in India' concept. We are strengthening the Armed forces," he elaborated.

> Congress will never develop Karnataka. People are aware of the game plan of the JDS and Congress
> Narendra Modi, Prime Minister

He pointed out that he laid the foundation stone for HAL's new chopper unit at Gubbi in Tumakuru district in 2014 and inaugurated it last year.

On Congress' poll manifesto, the PM said that the party had become a slave of appeasement (of minorities) and vote bank politics. He also came down heavily on the Congress' manifesto for mentioning banning the Bajrang Dal and rejecting the National Education Policy (NEP) if voted to power. "Such a party will never develop Karnataka. People of Karnataka are aware of the game plan of the JDS and Congress. A vote for JDS, is a vote for the Congress," he added.

He also said that the Congress was the enemy of rural students as it has proposed to reject the NEP if voted to power.

BJP leader booked for using kids at Shah roadshow

Shivamogga: A case has been registered in Doddapete police station under the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act for alleged use of children in the roadshow of Union Home Minister Amit Shah in Shivamogga recently. An election official lodged the complaint in this regard against the district BJP secretary Jayarama. He has been booked under Section 14 of the Act. According to the complaint, when Shah's roadshow was organised from Shivappa Nayaka Cirle to Laxmi Talkies Circle in Shivmaogga on May 1, 4-5 children were seen holding BJP flags and wearing party shawls. The incident was recorded by video surveillance team. ENS

Why Modi in Karnataka when Manipur is burning, asks Congress

Bengaluru: AICC general secretary Ajay Maken here on Friday took a dig at PM Modi for planning a road show in Bengaluru when Manipur was seeing large-scale riot. "As Manipur burns, the Governor of Manipur has issued a shoot at sight order. Is it possible for the Prime Minister to leave the country's capital for three days just for an election issue? Don't they have local leaders to fight elections in Karnataka?" Maken questioned. Maken said Manipur was a very important state geographically. ENS

No respect for senior leaders in BJP, conspiracy hatched against me: Shettar

Belagavi: "I served BJP for 30 years. But a conspiracy was hatched when I decided to contest for the seventh term. Some leaders feared that I could become the senior-most leader and compete for the top post. After BS Yediyurappa and KS Eshwarappa were sidelined, I was the only remaining senior leader. But the plan of a few BJP leaders to take control of the party has failed," said former chief minister Jagadish Shettar. ENS

After Bajrang blowback, Cong takes up survey

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru:

THE Congress, which has made a manifesto promise to ban organisations such as the Bajrang Dal and Popular Front of India, if voted to power, faced a blowback from the BJP and had to carry out some swift damage control. Now, it has commissioned a survey to assess the impact of this promise on the ground.

According to some central Congress leaders, it was a deliberate move to set the narrative on the ideological issue, and restrict the saffron party and Prime Minister Narendra Modi to the politics of religion, but many within the Congress felt it was not wise. Apparently, Congress candidates in the coastal and Malnad region were on a shaky base soon after the issue was raked up. Following this, former Union minister M Veerappa Moily clarified that a state government cannot ban an organisation, and the Congress manifesto does not mean it as well.

AICC general secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala also clarified that the manifesto does not exactly meant a ban on the Bajrang Dal, but action against such organisations that violate peace and harmony in society.

Candidates who expressed their concern were asked to speak along the same lines, and say the manifesto meant a ban on fringe elements that disturb peace in society, and also cite the example of the Parrikar government banning the Srirama Sene in Goa. They were also advised to build on the advantage gained by the '40 per cent commission' campaign, sources told TNIE.

BJP circles felt the issue is likely to help the party in 9-10 assembly constituencies, at least where the Bajrang Dal and pro-Hindu activists are active.

AICC communications head Pawan Khera, to a query at a press conference on Friday, admitted that an internal survey is in progress to assess the impact, and a report is awaited. "It takes guts to make such a decision on organisations like the Bajrang Dal, that is involved in illegal activities," remarked Congress spokesperson Supriya Shrinate, adding that the party has no regrets about its manifesto promise to that effect.

AICC general secretary and former chief minister Oommen Chandy, who has been undergoing medical treatment for throat cancer in Bengaluru, was admitted to the hospital with viral pneumonia on Friday. Chandy's condition is stable

PVR and Cinepolis backtrack on screening the movie; Kerala High Court watches trailer, finds nothing offensive

'The Kerala Story' runs in 22 theatres, many owners back out

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kochi

AFTER theatre owners agreed to screen the controversial movie 'The Kerala Story', many backed out over safety concerns and external pressure. Eventually, only 22 theatres across Kerala screened the movie. Mukesh Mehta, film producer, E4 Entertainments, who helped in the movie's distribution, told TNIE that there were no issues and those theatres which began screening the movie did not stop. He refused to comment on the first day's collection. "Everybody knows the audiences' reactions," he said.

M Vijayakumar, president of Film Exhibitors United Organisation, Kerala (FEUOK), said it was PVRs and Cinepolis who mainly withdrew from screening. "The agreement was to screen the movie in 28 theatres. PVR and Cinepolis pulled out of the screening. Most of the single theatres screened the film," he said. He wondered if there was some external pressure against screening the movie. "The movie has evinced good response, and in most theatres, the situation was peaceful," he said.

Liberty Basheer, an advisory board member of the Kerala Film Exhibitors Federation, said that theatre owners withdrew from screening over safety concerns. "There are huge protests against the movie. All parties, except for BJP, are against its screening," said Basheer. "If the screening of a controversial movie leads to any financial losses due to violence and protests, the theatre owners have to pay for it. We don't want to take any risk," said Basheer, adding there were protests in some theatres. Though the tickets were available for Cinepolis and Darshana theatre in Piravom, the screening was later withdrawn.

Will remove teaser, producer tells HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kochi

REFUSING to stay the screening of the controversial film 'The Kerala Story', a division bench of Justices N Nagaresh and Sophy Thomas of the Kerala High Court on Friday held, "There are umpteen films showing Hindu priests as bad people, and nothing happened in the country."

The bench noted the submission made by the producer that they do not intend to retain an "offending teaser" on their official social media handles.

The petitioner said that the movie is based on incorrect and unverified facts and contains derogatory remarks against a community, adding that its release will disrupt and destroy the secular fabric of the state.

When the counsel for Sunshine Pictures Pvt Ltd, Mumbai, the producer of the film, was asked by the court how they made the statement about 32,000 girls, the counsel replied it was based on the information they received, and it will not be continued.

"After watching the trailer, we found nothing offensive to any particular community. The fact remains that none of the petitioners have watched the movie. We find that a competent statutory authority like the CBFC has examined the movie and found that the film is suitable for public exhibition," said the court.

The court also noted that the disclaimer specifically states that the film has been fictionalised and is a dramatised version of the events. "In view of the disclaimer and assurance of the producer, we decline to pass an interim order restraining film makers from exhibiting the film," said the bench.

S Manu, deputy Solicitor General of India, appearing on behalf of the CBFC, said the movie makes no straight claim about 32,000 girls, but revolves around three girls.

IREDDY SRINIVAS REDDY @ Hyderabad

IN what could be a potential game-changer in Telangana politics and the internal dynamics of the Congress at large, the party high command is learnt to be seriously considering the idea of fielding AICC general secretary Priyanka Gandhi either from the Medak or Mahbubnagar Lok Sabha constituency in next year's general elections.

EXPRESS EXCLUSIVE

If the party finalizes her candidature, she would be making her electoral debut from Telangana - walking in the footsteps of her grandmother Indira Gandhi who had successfully contested from Medak in 1980. The 1980 election was crucial for Indira as she returned to power after her humiliating defeat in the immediate aftermath of the Emergency.

This sentiment is said to be one of the reasons for pitching the idea to Priyanka Gandhi to contest from Medak. "The people owned Indira Gandhi and helped her regain power. Quite a few prominent leaders close to Priyanka Gandhi have discussed several times with her the proposal of her political arangetram from Medak," highly-placed sources in the party confirmed to TNIE.

The option of Mahbubnagar is also not off the table. Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS) chief and Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao contested from Mahbubnagar in 2009. KCR contested from the Medak Lok Sabha constituency and Gajwel Assembly segment in 2014 and won both. Subsequently, he resigned to his Lok Sabha membership following which BRS leader K Prabhakar Reddy was elected from Medak in the bypoll the same year and later, in the 2019 polls too.

Medak district also happens to be the native of KCR and is considered to be one of the bastions of the BRS. The party won seven out of the seven Assembly segments in Medak Parliamentary constituency in 2014. In 2018 too, it won six. Given this scenario, it may not be a cakewalk from Priyanka Gandhi if she does throw her hat in the ring.

Cong needs no lesson from Modi on fighting terrorism: Chennithala

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

RESPONDING to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's allegations that Congress has "indulged in backdoor political bargaining with people having terror inclinations", senior Congress leader Ramesh Chennithala told The New Indian Express that Modi should not teach Congress about fighting terrorism because Congress has lost two prime ministers – Indira Gandhi and Rajiv Gandhi – in their fight against terrorism.

'The Kerala Story' tarnishes Kerala's image by claiming that 32,000 women have fallen prey to terror organisations, which is "absurd and incorrect".

"Kerala is a peaceful state and all communities live together in harmony. Kerala is 100 per cent literate and has a high level of tolerance. My son, a central service officer, is married to a person of a different faith. I have accepted their marriage. All these things happen in a progressive state," he said.

He said that in the last elections, UDF got 40 per cent vote share while BJP got a mere 10 per cent.

Former chief minister Veerappa Moily, who hails from Dakshina Kannada, said, "No prime minister should propagate factionalism. No one should create apprehensions to divide the society and people. Narendra Modi should remember that he is the PM of the nation and not BJP."

Author of many books, Moily said, "I am writing about world civilizations and this is what a Fascist government does, Mussolini did this."

Balarama is ill, stops eating; vets do endoscopy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

ONE of Karnataka's most popular tuskers, Balarama, the 69-year-old former howdah elephant, is said to be ill. He has not been eating in the past seven days, said forest department officials. A team of veterinarians and experts from Bengaluru has done an endoscopy on him to know the exact cause.

As per preliminary investigation, the tusker is suffering from throat infection, internal infection and worm infection, and is unable to swallow anything.

He has stopped eating and his caretakers and veterinarians are trying to feed him liquids. The tusker is under continuous observation in the special elephant health camp in Bheemanakatte, near Nagarhole Tiger Reserve. The royal Mysuru family is said to have paid the expenditure for his endoscopy.

"When elephants stop eating, it is difficult to diagnose what is wrong. To start the exact course of treatment and proper antibiotics, the exact cause needs to be known. All means are being tried to make the animal eat and drink. This kind of behaviour is also seen among animals who are reaching the end," said a veterinarian. According to the forest department, he is the second oldest camp elephant in the state. The oldest is Salara, 79 years, who also stays in the same camp. "Camp elephants live longer than wild ones because of the care, diet and attention they are given. In camps, they even live up to 90 years. Balaram is also the oldest Dasara elephant. He has carried the howdah for around 15 years and only recently, and the task was given to Abhimanyu," said a forest official.

Steps have been taken to ensure free movement of ambulances or movement of other vehicles, the commissioner said.

Strong winds, rough currents hamper fishing

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

FISHERMEN who were expecting a good catch in April have been facing inclement weather conditions over the last five to six days.

Fishermen who ventured into deep-sea fishing off Malpe, Gangolli, Mangaluru, Bhatkal, Honnavar and Karwar coast have faced strong wind rocking their boats.

The situation for purse seine boats is the same as most of the boats are back on the shore and anchored in the harbour. Naveen Kotian, a purse seine boat fisherman in Malpe told TNIE that of the 100 purse seine boats in Malpe harbour, only 10 are engaged in fishing, while the remaining have returned to the shore.

"The squally weather with wind speed reaching 28-30 kmph, increases in the evening," he added.

Other fishermen who gathered near Malpe said that the rough currents caused by inclement weather resulted in higher fuel costs for the boat owners as they have to make way against strong winds. "We faced this similar situation in March this year. Fishing had to be put off for some days in March due to the same reason," they added.

Small trawl fishing boats which are about 4,000 in the three coastal districts - Udupi, Dakshina Kannada and Uttara Kannada - are also facing the same condition

Man kills mother of 2, dumps body in forest, held

ENS @ Kochi

IN a gruesome incident, a 26-year-old mother of two was strangled to death and dumped in Thumboormozhi Forest in Athirappally allegedly by her colleague. Athira's decomposed body was found under a heap of dried leaves Friday morning. The police have arrested Akhil, her colleague, who is also married with kids. He has reportedly confessed his crime. Akhil strangled her using her own shawl, the police said.

A special team was formed by Rural SP Vivek Kumar. "The woman had left her phone at home. We checked her contacts. We questioned Akhil, but couldn't find enough evidence to establish his role. They had been working in a supermarket in Angamaly over the last six months," said an officer. The police examined the CCTV footage of Kalady bus stop where Athira's husband dropped her Saturday morning. "We found Athira had travelled in a car from the bus stop. The registration number showed it was a rented car. But the original owner had no information, but shared with us the details of the person who bought it. We came to know Akhil had rented the car. Faced with this information, he confessed and told us where the body was," the officer said.

Regional satraps of national parties a vanishing species?

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

WITH cadre defining party strength, the era of the regional satrap seems to be nearing its end. As Karnataka goes to polls on May 10, the season has seen just a sprinkling of local strongmen spearheading campaigns and adding colour to electioneering.

Regional satraps once ruled the roost -- in 2008, BJP was spearheaded by former CM B S Yediyurappa with biggies like B Sriramulu, Laxman Savadi, CM Udasi, among others from different regions and castes, having their own identity beyond the party.

The trend prevailed in 2013, with Yediyurappa floating his own Karnataka Janata Party, and B Sriramulu and the Reddy brothers of Ballari launching the Badavara Shramikara Raithara (BSR) Congress. Yediyurappa returned to the BJP and led the party from the front in 2018, along with other regional leaders within the party. Sriramulu, as an ST Nayaka leader, helped the party by campaigning across the state where the community has considerable votes.

The BJP is now seen to be highly dependent on Prime Minister Narendra Modi, as there is a huge demand for his rallies by party candidates. BJP National General Secretary J P Nadda, Union Home Minister Amit Shah and others, too, have been campaigning.

"Ours is a cadre-based party and has grown hugely with PM Modi's charisma," remarked BJP chief spokesperson M G Mahesh.

"There are no regional leaders in the forefront as far as Congress is concerned. The real campaigning has been done by Siddaramaiah, D K Shivakumar and other Congress leaders. The JDS campaign was led by Kumaraswamy and H D Deve Gowda. The BJP is relying on central leaders. Of course, Yediyurappa is there, but he has retired from electoral politics. Because the state government doesn't seem to be popular, state-level BJP leaders were not projected much by the party in the campaign. PM Modi seems to be at the centre of the BJP campaign," analysed psephologist Prof Sandeep Shastri.

SENSITIVE HANDLING MUST FOR RETURN OF PEACE TO MANIPUR

The Manipur High Court's March 27 direction to the state government to consider including the state's majority Meitei community in the list of Scheduled Tribes has ignited violent clashes that have caused loss of lives and property. The Meitei petitioners in the court argued that they belong to the same racial and linguistic stock as the hill tribes of the state and, therefore, deserve to be designated as STs. The existing STs of Manipur—Kuki-Zomi and the Nagas—residing in the hills around Imphal Valley, have opposed reservation for the Meiteis, who, they say, are the dominant community that controls the state's power and resources. The current clashes result from these contesting claims by the two sections.

The Central and state governments must strictly enforce the rule of law. An assurance to examine all aspects of the issue would soothe the flaring tempers. Once peace is established, the government needs to send a clear signal that the inclusion in the ST list would be done only on the basis of the Constitutional provisions and the definition provided by the successive commissions set up by the Centre for the purpose.

The first Backward Classes Commission, set up in 1953 under the chairmanship of Kaka Kalelkar, defined STs in the following words: "The Scheduled Tribes can be generally ascertained by the fact that they live apart in hills, and even where they live on the plains, they lead a separate excluded existence and are not fully assimilated in the main body of the people. Scheduled Tribes may belong to any religion. They were listed as Scheduled Tribes because of the kind of life led by them." The Union tribal affairs ministry defines STs as follows: "The criterion followed for specification of a community, as scheduled tribes are indications of primitive traits, distinctive culture, geographical isolation, shyness of contact with the community at large, and backwardness." In both these definitions, isolation and backwardness are the key elements in identifying STs. Any dilution of these criteria would open Pandora's box. The government needs to handle the Manipur issue gently as the players involved in the present tussle have ties across all northeastern states and even across borders in Myanmar and Bangladesh. There are also demands for carving out a separate Kuki state out of Manipur.

GST INFLOWS HIGH, TIME TO CAST TAX NET WIDER

In her first budget speech in July 2019, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman indicated that GST collections would likely stabilise from FY22. The Covid-19 pandemic and the resultant economic slowdown were nowhere in the picture then, yet the promised star performance began rolling out. Gross collections stood at ₹18 lakh crore in FY23, while monthly collections averaged ₹1.5 lakh crore, thanks to the widening tax base and higher compliance. FY23 saw the highest-ever haul, so proponents see the sustained buoyancy in collections, notwithstanding global uncertainties, as a sign of India's resilience. But critics rightly remind us that GST being a consumption tax, high inflation throughout FY23 played a significant role in cranking up numbers. If inflation eases this fiscal, reaching the ambitious monthly target of ₹2 lakh crore collections or even sustaining the prevailing ₹1.4–1.5 lakh crore monthly average should be possible, provided the government undertakes tax reforms.

In its six years of existence, the indirect tax reform has undergone several fine-tunings, yet it remains a work in progress. Though initial distractions like invoice mismatches, refund delays, and input tax credit uncertainties were ironed out, there are several areas that need immediate attention. Be it the setting up of appellate tribunals or dispute resolution mechanisms, the GST Council must summon strength and speed given the backlog of existing disputes. It should also revisit the contentious issue of rate rationalisation. In a 2015 study, then Chief Economic Advisor Arvind Subramanian indicated 15.5% as the revenue-neutral rate. But the latest studies indicate otherwise. An EY study last year found that merging existing rates into anything below 18% leads to revenue loss. Instead, several studies suggest 8%, 15% and 30% slabs to raise the GST-to-GDP ratio, which barely moved an inch compared to the pre-GST era.

Currently, GST has four slabs—5%, 12%, 18% and 28%—besides an exempt list including everyday essential items. Interestingly, a significant number of products fall under the exempt list and the 5% slab; given our socio-economic inequalities, these shouldn't be tweaked. Likewise, the 28% slab includes luxury and sin goods, some of which also attract an additional cess. One sure way to raise collections without tinkering with rates is to bring petroleum products, real estate, alcohol and electricity under GST. Given the resistance from the states, if not as a whole, the Council can start small.

RELAX RULES FOR PwDs

The Supreme Court issues notice to the Centre on a plea for recruiting Persons with Disabilities (PwDs) to the IPS, RPF and Danips. It follows the court last year allowing them to apply for these services provisionally as their preferences in the civil services exams. Many countries employ PwDs in non-combat jobs in the defence forces. The US military has a 10% quota for them. The Israeli military allows deaf soldiers to do desk duties. The issue is whether the Indian government can lower the eligibility scale for such candidates in non-active roles. It's not impossible, but it requires an inclusive approach.

This business of aided educational institutions versus unaided is, of course, a needless and dysfunctional silo

AN EXIT POLICY FOR HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS

BIBEK DEBROY

Chairman, Economic Advisory Council to the PM

On November 12, 2021, the Government of Andhra Pradesh developed a remarkable policy. It deserves a longish quote. "The Government issued a policy for facilitating the surrender of willing private aided educational institutions in the category of Degree Colleges, Schools, Junior Colleges and Polytechnics respectively. As per the policy, the willing Private Aided Educational Institutions can surrender the entire institution along with the assets and the existing staff voluntarily, which will make the institutions as Government Educational Institutions without any liabilities and financial burden on the exchequer OR surrender the aid voluntarily in the form of surrendering all the duly sanctioned aided posts along with the aided staff, but not the assets, which will make the institutions as Private Unaided Educational Institutions." I will skip the various options since that's not what I wish to flag. What's the background? It is the following.

"In these changed circumstances, the Private Aided Educational Institutions in the State seem to have lost their relevance and vitality as most of them are lagging behind the Government and Private Unaided Educational Institutions in terms of performance and quality resources. Thus, the Government felt that the present policy of extending grant-in-aid to Private Educational Institutions needs a detailed review and course corrections."

I find this policy remarkable not because of what it does but because of an extrapolation of the argument. This business of aided versus unaided is, of course, a needless and dysfunctional silo. Aided colleges receive grants from the government. This means salaries of teachers and principals are paid by the government, and the government has a role in running these colleges. As a corollary, courses are subsidised, and salaries government-determined. Private unaided colleges have no such restrictions. They have much greater autonomy in deciding fees and salaries. To complicate matters, the same college may have aided and self-financed courses, with autonomy greater for the latter and restricted for the former. Let's extend the argument to universities.

Those who run public universities invariably complain that, with the advent of private universities, it is impossible to attract faculty since they are weaned off by private universities which offer higher salaries. (Public research institutions also voice similar complaints.) As a basic principle of economics, salaries must be linked to productivity, however measured. In many spheres, and certainly in teaching, productivity is individual-specific. There should be no notion of average productivity for a group. In an ideal situation, every teacher's salary ought to be different. That extreme is often impossible to implement. Hence, there is some notion of scales. However, within that range, there must be sufficient differentiation. Otherwise, there will be no distinction between chaff and grain, irrespective of productivity. We have this problem with all government-determined salaries, not just for teachers in higher education institutions. There will be little variation between teachers other than what is linked to designations. In contrast, variation is much greater in private ones, leading to complaints about the exploitation of entry-level faculty.

Private higher education institutions (HEIs) haven't always covered themselves with glory. There have been several shady ones, even some that are fake. This is linked to regulation, or its lack, and the form that regulation takes. Accreditation and grading indirectly reflect regulatory requirements, and question marks have been publicly raised about both NBA (National Board of Accreditation) and NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council). These are still in the process of evolution. For instance, as a prospective student/parent, what would I like to know? What are the qualifications of the faculty, their publishing and citation records? What is placement like? What does the HEI earn revenue from, and where does it spend (almost like a company's balance sheet)? Global rankings of HEIs have better metrics. In many ways, as in other sectors, competition is the best check on quality.

As a result of the National Education Policy (NEP) and competition that occurs because of other policy changes, some HEIs will close down and some teachers will lose their jobs, even without AI (Artificial Intelligence) being brought into it. Note also that despite India becoming the most populous country in the world, the population growth rate is slowing down and the absolute number of young is declining. Because of that reason, too, some HEIs will perforce close down. To handle that competition, we need to allow the management and administration of public HEIs to become more flexible, freeing them from the government's apron strings. This includes fees and salaries, and the cause of poorer students is best served through targeted individual scholarships, not through low across-the-board fees. But if I ask for government resources, the government has the right to control. Stated differently, sooner rather than later (2030 is not that far away), public HEIs must look for alternative funding sources. As of today, and I am not being deliberately negative, few can do so.

I started this column with the Andhra Pradesh government's policy on private aided institutions. Stated simply, they have the options of surrendering aid to become unaided, or surrendering the institution (along with assets and staff) to become public (government) institutions. Stripped to its essentials, this is an exit policy for private aided colleges in AP, and perhaps other states will follow suit.

By extrapolating the argument, we need an exit policy for all HEIs, public and private. Some of them are already unviable, and others will become so. When I say all HEIs, I don't mean private ones alone. Under one of the options, the AP policy effectively nationalises a private aided college. But the point is that public HEIs will also become unviable. If nothing else, they possess valuable real estate, resources locked up and unproductive. Somewhere down the line, voluntary attrition through retirement apart, we need to think of a Voluntary Retirement Scheme (VRS) for faculty in public HEIs. This isn't in the public discourse yet—perish the thought.

Higher education and education are perceived to be special. Thus, we will not talk about the exit for HEIs and schools. But the problem won't go away. We probably have around 10 million school teachers and almost 2 million in all HEIs. Given India's population size, 12 million is not a large number. However, this is a vocal and typically urban segment. There will be uproar if we mention exit for educational institutions or teachers. Brush it under the carpet.

KEEP AI IN CHECK BEFORE IT CHECKMATES YOUR POLLS

PRATIK KANJILAL

Editor of The India Cable

SPEAKEASY

A random guy capable of writing a few AI prompts and a subscription to a bot—that's all it takes to make political deepfakes now, as the world's biggest democracies head for national elections next year. Without regulation, artificial intelligence based on machine learning could precipitate an unprecedented crisis of confidence in elections in India and the US.

An AI-generated deepfake blitz would accelerate the ongoing erosion of public confidence in the news, wearing out by sheer volume people's capacity to identify machine-made lies. Indifference to truth and falsehood would increase polarisation, allowing electoral contenders and officials to believe or disbelieve facts according to expediency. The need to acknowledge the truth of an opponent would vanish, and with it, the need for the dialogue itself, the basis of democracy.

The general view of AI is dystopian, but occasionally, there are supportive arguments like California law teacher Orly Lobel's book, The Equality Machine, which has closely followed the fortunes of AI. It was released in the US in October 2022, just a month before OpenAI unveiled ChatGPT-3, roiling the digital industry and raising public forebodings. The book, whose Indian edition is now out, dismisses dystopian projections as alarmist and suggests that within a framework of public policy based on equity, artificial intelligence and machine learning can be forces of good—and should be seen as public goods. Of course, that's a reformulation of the old observation that technology is value-neutral and will pursue the moral imperatives of its maker, whether it's swords or ploughshares.

The book's India launch is equally timely, just after Aaj Tak powered up the country's first AI news anchor, raising concerns about job losses and propaganda poisoning news at scale—though some human journalists have prospered in their jobs precisely by doing propaganda. If you're writing about AI, it's hard to go off-key because every day, someone, somewhere, is launching something shiny like Aaj Tak's AI, a PYT named Sana. Her minder describes her as "bright, gorgeous, ageless, tireless"—more perfect than humans, precisely how AIs are described in dystopian sci-fi. Guess they don't read much of that over at India Today because this was not said in irony.

Despite her minder's enthusiasm, Sana is a trivial headline vocaliser. It is even less revolutionary than the AI that Bloomberg has been using to turn stock ticker data into small news items in real-time, a job that used to be handled less efficiently by subeditors. They naturally hate such work, and it's easy to teach a machine pink paper jargon like 'realty heads north despite global headwinds'.

> This is not how technology is supposed to play out. Its perceived role is to liberate humans from drudgery and leave them free to pursue a life of creativity

But at about the same time, popular music was shaken up by the arrival of a song by an AI that had learned to channel Drake. Alarm bells rang in the corridors of commerce as music industry executives and composers privately admitted that the AI Drake was perhaps more engaging than the human Drake. The machine has evoked a response in listeners, and some say it has passed a Turing test couched in the language of music, which is a fancy way of saying that it can compete with humans.

Meanwhile, ChatGPT has been caught making up fake Guardian articles. And under the nom de plume of Aidan Marchine, journalist and writer Stephen Marche has published the novella Death of an Author, which was actually written by three AIs. The New York Times responded with the obituary of formula storytelling, as in romcoms and space opera. That's where publishing and entertainment make their money, not with the modern classics, so this is going to hurt.

This is not how technology is supposed to play out. Its perceived role is to liberate humans from drudgery and leave them free to pursue a life of creativity. So there was a clamour for regulation in the music industry, and the AI Drake number was taken off platforms. At about the same time, US screenwriters, who have the advantage of being unionised, laid down the picket line to reserve the right to write TV shows.

But unions have rarely been able to resist replacing manual jobs with technology, especially if it offsets job losses with new opportunities. Desktop publishing and digital entertainment have been slashing jobs and closing down departments since the early Nineties, laying off a range of workers from typesetters to cinema projectionists. But it also enabled small presses and indie entertainment. It remains true despite the recent failure of Buzzfeed and Vice, digital media which tried to supplant old media and became as vulnerable to the caprices of capital as their predecessors. AI will accelerate this phenomenon by, for instance, making computer code and art from verbal guidelines. What will people do with such new abilities? Partly dystopian stuff. That's human nature.

Technology problems are not solved by more technology but by laws and codes—by regulation. The question of intellectual property is deep: why is it normal for an acolyte to train with a master but a violation for an AI to be trained on Drake's music? But the question of deepfake news—fiction written by machines for electoral advantage—assumes urgency as national elections near the US and India. Since free speech absolutism has become widely accepted, it may be difficult to step back to when it was agreed that liars deserve to be penalised, not merely exposed, for the greatest good of the greatest number—including the liars themselves.

PM to be Guest of Honour at Bastille Day Parade in Paris

Invitation marks 25 years of India-France strategic partnership

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi will attend this year's Bastille Day Parade in Paris on July 14 as the guest of honour, the Ministry of External Affairs said on Friday. Modi will be the second Indian Prime Minister to be the guest of honour at Bastille Day, after Manmohan Singh in 2009.

"On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the India-France Strategic Partnership, PM Modi has accepted French President Emmanuel Macron's invitation to attend this year's Bastille Day Parade as Guest of Honour on July 14 in Paris," according to a government communiqué.

Bastille Day is one of the most significant celebrations in France. Also known as the French National Day, this day marks the anniversary of the Storming of the Bastille on July 14 1789 – which was a major event of the French Revolution that celebrated the unity of the French people on July 14, 1790.

Bastille Day parade is said to be the oldest and largest military parade in Europe.

To mark this milestone, Indian and French troops will march side by side in the military parade in Paris.

PM Modi's visit is expected to herald the next phase in the India-France strategic partnership by setting new targets the two countries strategic, cultural, scientific, academic, economic cooperation, including in a range of industries.

This year India and France are celebrating 25 years of strategic partnership.

"India and France have a shared vision on peace and security, especially in Europe and the Indo-Pacific and uphold the objectives and the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, which are also the basis of our cooperation in the Indo-Pacific region. This historic visit will also deliver common initiatives in order to respond to the key challenges and will be an opportunity for India and France to reaffirm their commitment to multilateralism, including in the context of India's G20 Presidency," says the Ministry of External Affairs.

Prime Minister Modi and President Macron are slated to meet later this month in Hiroshima on the sidelines of the G7 Summit.

President Macron is expected to attend the G20 Leaders Summit in September this year in India.

NEXT PHASE OF BILATERAL RELATIONS

- PM Narendra Modi will be the second Indian Prime Minister to be the guest of honour at Bastille Day, after Dr Manmohan Singh in 2009
- Indian and French troops will march side by side in the military parade in Paris

Covid no more health emergency: WHO

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THE World Health Organization (WHO) on Friday declared that Covid-19 virus no longer represents a 'global health emergency'.

The announcement came three years after it was first declared its highest level of alert on the virus, which killed millions globally, wreaked havoc on people's lives and forced people to live in lockdown while the economy suffered.

"With great hope, I declare Covid-19 over as a global health emergency," WHO Director General Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus said.

"For more than a year, the pandemic has been on a downward trend with population immunity increasing from vaccination, and infection, mortality decreasing and the pressure on health systems easing," he added.

"This trend has allowed most countries to return to life as we knew it before Covid-19," Tedros said.

The announcement came after the Covid-19 Emergency Committee met for the 15th time and recommended that Tedros declare "an end to the public health emergency of international concern". He, however, warned the decision did not mean the danger was over and cautioned that the emergency status could be reinstated if the situation changed.

Nearly seven million people have died from Covid-19 globally since the WHO first declared the emergency on January 30, 2020. Tedros said the true death toll is at least 20 million. The virus will continue to have pandemic status just like HIV, WHO said.

Though Covid-19 continues to see surges in many parts of the world, many countries have ended their states of emergency and stopped restricting public travel.

The US will lift its Covid emergency on May 11.

According to WHO, there have been 765,222,932 confirmed cases of Covid-19, including 6,921,614 deaths, as of May 3, while 13,344,670,055 vaccine doses have been administered till April 29. India reported the third highest number of Covid-19 cases at 44,952,996 and 531,564 deaths till May 3, according to the WHO. The US tops in reporting the highest number of cases (103,266,404) and deaths (1,124,063).

Dr K Srinath Reddy, former director of the Public Health Foundation of India (PHFI), said that WHO's decision to declare an end to the global public health emergency caused by Covid-19 is a well-judged response to the changed situation after Omicron has established itself as the dominant and durable variant over the 18 months since it emerged.

"Despite its high transmissibility and immune evasion capacity, it has manifested reduced virulence. With low rates of severe illness, hospitalisation and death, this variant has no longer imposed severe stress on health and social systems, which are also better prepared to counter the virus," he told this paper.

"Under these circumstances, the label of a public health emergency is no longer justified. However, we must continue to be vigilant against more virulent variants through strong surveillance and strengthened health systems," he added. Covid-19 continues to be reported from various parts of the world, including in India. In India, a new Omicron sub-variant XBB.1.16 is driving the surge; it is now showing a sign of decline.

The WHO recorded 2.8 million new cases globally and more than 17,000 deaths from April 3 to 30.

Elevation of 68 magistrates challenged in SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court will hear on May 8 a plea filed by two judicial officers of the senior civil judge cadre challenging the promotion of 68 judicial officers to district judges by way of the 65 per cent quota rule. The 68 also include judicial magistrate Harish Hasmukhbhai Varma who convicted Congress leader Rahul Gandhi for criminal defamation and sentenced him to two years simple imprisonment.

The petitions, filed by Ravikumar Maheta, under secretary in the legal department of the Gujarat government, and Sachin Prataprai Mehta, assistant director at the Gujarat State Legal Services Authority, argued that although the post of district judge as per the Recruitment Rules was to be filled in by keeping 65 per cent reservation on the basis of the principle of merit-cum-seniority and passing a suitability test. But merit-cum-seniority principle was given a go-by and the appointments were made on the basis of the seniority-cum-merit. Ravikumar Maheta in the plea stated that he had secured 135.5 marks out of 200 and Sachin Prataprai Mehta had secured 148.5 out of 200, but the candidates having lower marks were appointed.

Petitioner in the plea had sought for setting aside the selection list issued by the HC on April 10 and subsequent notification of the state government of appointing them. They had also sought for directing the HC to prepare a "fresh merit list" based on the principle of merit cum seniority.

A bench of Justices MR Shah and CT Ravikumar had issued notice in the plea on April 13. On April 28, the bench slammed the Gujarat government for the "haste and hurry" in which it issued promotion order dated April 18. Disapproving the manner, the court in the order said, "We do not appreciate the haste and hurry in which the State has approved and passed the promotion order, when this Court was seized with the matter and a detailed order was passed while issuing the notice. It is to be noted that the selection was of the year 2022 and therefore there was no extraordinary urgency in passing the promotion order and that too when this Court was seized of the matter. We are prima facie of the opinion that it is nothing but overreaching the Court's process."

The court sought response of the Secretary, State Govt to explain the reasons for showing "extraordinary urgency" for granting promotion and issuing notification.

'UP varsity officials, accused of conversion, got ₹34 cr in funds'

NEW DELHI: Amid multiple cases of mass religious conversions, the Uttar Pradesh government on Friday informed the Supreme Court that over ₹34 crore was received by top officials of the Sam Higginbottom University of Agriculture, Technology and Science (SHUATS) at Prayagraj – who are facing charges of illegal conversion.

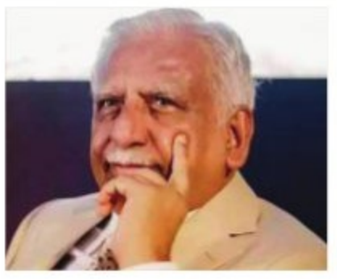
The director and vice-chancellor of the institute are accused of religious conversion of marginalised sections of Hindu and Muslim society into Christianity by allurement and use of threats and coercion.

The UP government affidavit also stated that the funds received by SHUATS were being transmitted to "Yeshu Darbar Trust" and being distributed in cash to pastors of churches involved in the offence.

In March, the Allahabad HC had rejected the anticipatory bail plea of the director and vice-chancellor of the institute.

CBI searches Naresh Goyal's house, other locations in ₹538-cr fraud case

AMIT MUKHERJEE @ New Delhi



FORMER Jet Airways promoter Naresh Goyal, his wife Anita Goyal and his associates were booked by the CBI on Friday for allegedly defrauding the Canara Bank to the tune of ₹538 crore. The agency also carried out searches at seven locations including official and residential premises in connection with Goyal and his associates.

The CBI had on Wednesday registered an FIR against Goyal, his wife, former airline director Gaurang Ananda Shetty along with other associates and some unknown public servants for commission of offences punishable under section of the Prevention of Corruption Act, the investigation of which has been entrusted to Bank Frauds and Securities branch (BSFB), New Delhi.

The case was registered on the basis of preliminary probe on a complaint file by the officials of Canara Bank in November last year.

The company which is in the process of revival after Jalan Kalrock Consortium won the bid for Jet Airways under the insolvency resolution process at National Company Law Tribunal is also facing several hurdles in the wake of the top officials resigning and the lenders not handing over the ownership over debts.

During 2011-18, ₹14,552.44 crore was given as Loan to Jet Lite (India) Ltd. (JLL) and in return ₹13,529.62 crore was received from JLL.

Sensing irregularities, the State Bank of India (SBI) on behalf of the consortium mandated Ernst & Young LLC to conduct a forensic audit on the company for the period from 1 April 2011 to 19 June 2019 ("review period") vide its engagement agreement dated October 19, 2019.

The final audit report was submitted by EY on February 10.2021. The audit conducted in the accounts of Jet Airways revealed fraudulent features like diversion and siphoning of funds through various means including commission expenses to General Selling Agents (GSA) and personal expenses of company staff.

The company indulged in "siphoning funds through Jet Lite (India) Ltd (JLL) by way of making advances and investing and subsequently writing off the same by making provision". The Company has diverted the funds for making transfers to the subsidiary (JLL) in the form of loans and advances and investments extended to the company.

Army plans to digitise projects to strengthen its war-waging potential

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

THE Indian Army is working on "digitalization and automation" of its information and data sharing, not only to keep them secure but also make them work fast too. The initiatives pertaining to systems, processes and functions are going on which will make them efficient, outcome-oriented and reduce manpower.

Speaking to this paper a defence source said a number of secure automation projects are underway which are aimed at enhancing not only the operational efficiency but also our human resource management, logistics, inventory management, medical services, other administrative functions and functional efficiency."

Soon a new Battlefield Surveillance System (BSS) under 'Project Sanjay' will be deployed for which extensive validation was carried out in plains, desert, and later in the mountainous last year.

"Under BSS, the aim is to have surveillance centres for all field formations by December 2025. That will integrate thousands of sensors which will enable the provision of an integrated surveillance picture to commanders and staff at all levels, besides completing the sensor-shooter grid by integrating with the Artillery Combat Command and Control System (ACCCS)," said a defence source.

The system will also relay the data collected and collated across the frontiers on the adversaries received from various sensors, satellites, UAVs and patrols among others. In the array of projects this will be just one. The Defence PSU Bharat Electronics Ltd (BEL) Ghaziabad is the project's system integrator; it has shown 95-96% success under validations in various terrain and conditions and has been found to meet the aspirations of the Army.

As part of trials, a few surveillance centres were set up under two corps of the Army. With the bulk production clearance granted, the full project will be implemented by 2025-end. Sources said the initial cost was estimated around ₹2,700 crore. However, it has been revised to ₹2,400 crore and set to go down further with the project being reviewed. For improvement of the network for these projects, operationalisation of the secure project Network for Spectrum (NFS) has been carried out.

Further, the Army is setting up captive data centres across the country and these will be fully operational this year.

EXPLAINER • STUDENT SUICIDES

SHORTENED LIVES

35 INDIAN STUDENTS' END THEIR LIVES DAILY

India recorded 35 daily student suicides especially during Covid as per the National Crime Record Bureau's 2021 report. Mental health issues among students remain highly stigmatized in the country, causing many to feel ashamed or embarrassed to seek help. The COVID-19 pandemic has further exacerbated stress and anxiety levels among students due to disruptions to their education, isolation from peers, and uncertainty about the future

Grim Scenario

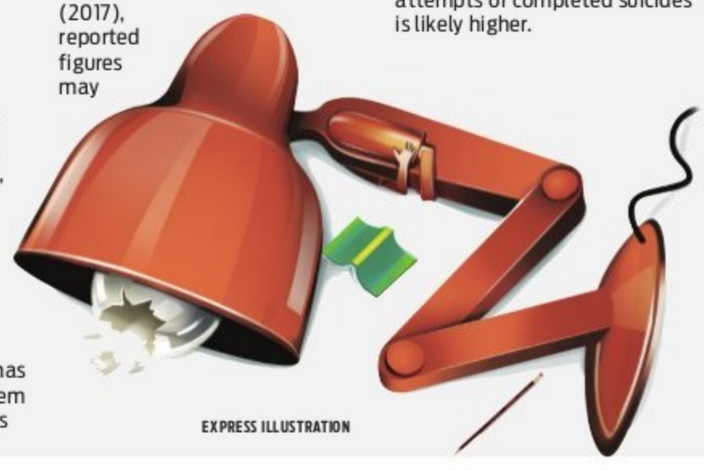
The Ministry of Education reported 33 student suicides in Indian Institutes of Technology from 2018-2023, along with 61 additional suicides in National Institutes of Technology and Indian Institutes of Management. Suicides increased by 4.5% in 2022, with approximately 35 student suicides daily. In 2021, 864 out of 10,732 suicides were attributed to exam failures, while nine Central University students ended their lives in 2023.

Why are Students Committing Suicide?

In 2021, out of 10,732 suicides, 864 were linked to exam failure, as per the Accidental Deaths & Suicides in India report. India's highly competitive education system, coupled with limited opportunities for higher education and employment, has resulted in a significant problem of student suicide. The issue is multifaceted, with factors such as parental expectations, financial constraints, bullying, relationship issues, and inadequate support systems contributing to the problem.

Are actual figures higher?

Although attempted suicide is no longer a punishable offense in India under the Mental Healthcare Act (2017), reported figures may not accurately reflect the actual number of suicide attempts. The classification of cause of death as suicide or not may depend on the local police constable, as mentioned in Dr. Soumitra Pathare's book "Life Interrupted: Understanding India's Suicide Crisis." Many students do not report suicide attempts due to guilt, shame, or fear of being mocked, and the actual number of suicide attempts or completed suicides is likely higher.



EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

Mental Health Infrastructure Woes

India has a severe shortage of mental health professionals, with only one professional available for every people. As a result, individuals in need of regular mental healthcare, including students, often have to rely on expensive private mental health professionals. In major cities, counseling or psychiatric consultations can cost up to ₹2,000-4,000 per hour, making it difficult for students with limited resources to access these services.

1,00,000

Solution?

To address student suicide rates in India, a comprehensive approach is needed, including education system reforms, enhanced mental health support, awareness campaigns, and increased opportunities for students to pursue non-academic interests. The UGC has introduced new regulations, and the Union Health Ministry has requested a short-term strategy from the IIT Council. The Centre has also issued operational guidelines for schools and higher education institutions to provide trained counselors or psychologists on campus. However, there is still a long way to go.

Moosewala parents add to AAP's plight ahead of by-election

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

MORE troubles are ahead for AAP in the Jalandhar Lok Sabha by-election due next week. Slain Punjabi singer Sidhu Moosewala's parents on Friday started an 'Insaaf Yatra -- Justice for Sidhu Moose Wala' from Phillaur and urged people not to vote for the AAP candidate.

The parents said they are seeking justice for their son because the government has failed to do anything in 11 months since the singer's murder.

Balkaur Singh, father of Moosewala, began his yatra from Bada Pind, a part of Phillaur assembly seat of the Jalandhar Lok Sabha constituency ahead of the by-poll on May 10. He said the yatra will be held for two days-- Friday and Saturday-- and he will cover all nine assembly segments of the Jalandhar Lok Sabha seat. Addressing a public gathering, Singh said, "All of you know that until May 29, 2022, we were a happy three-member family. We had no enmity with anyone. However, our son was shot dead ruthlessly."

"They are doing politics in my son's name. I have knocked all doors. Whenever I approach the authorities, they say I am playing the victim card," said Moose Wala's father.

With frustration apparent in his voice, Balkaur Singh said: "I'm not a candidate of any party nor am I asking you to vote for any party. I am appealing to you not to vote for those who cannot deliver justice." His yatra may impact the poll prospects of the ruling AAP which lost the Lok Sabha by-election of Sangrur last year, three months after it won the assembly polls winning 92 seats.

Didi renews call for Oppn unity in '24

Stresses on one-to-one fight against BJP, says will be happy if saffron party's downfall starts from K'taka

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

WEST Bengal chief minister Mamata Banerjee on Friday reiterated her stand on Opposition unity, saying there should be one-to-one fight against the BJP to overthrow it from the Centre.

"All Opposition parties must unite. Let's do one-to-one fight against BJP. Whoever is strong in an area, should fight from there. I will be happy if BJP's downfall starts from Karnataka elections, scheduled to be held this month," said Mamata addressing a rally at Shamsherganj in Murshidabad.

The chief minister visited the areas affected by erosion on the banks of river Ganga. She alleged the Centre is not paying Bengal's dues as part of a political vendetta.

"The Centre will not give us funds till the 2024 elections because we have been fighting against the BJP," Mamata said. She also slammed the Central government over the alleged misuse of agencies against Opposition parties.

"The BJP has two things to say. One is 'Thok Do (shoot at) and when they send central agencies, they tell them 'Badnaam Kar Do (malign them). Officers of CBI and ED tell them that there is no case, they tell them Badnaam Kar Do. Agencies will not help them to fetch votes," said the Bengal CM.

> The Centre will not give us funds till the 2024 elections because we have been fighting against the BJP. The BJP has two things to say. One is 'Thok Do (shoot at) and when they send central agencies, they tell them 'Badnaam Kar Do (malign them)
> Mamata Banerjee, West Bengal CM

Mamata had recently met Opposition leaders, including Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav, Bihar chief minister Nitish Kumar and his deputy Tejaswi Yadav at Nabanna, the state secretariat, and had expressed her desire for an Opposition meeting before the 2024 elections.

After coming to power for third straight term in Bengal in 2021, Mamata raised her voice on the issue of Opposition parties' unity to derail the BJP from the Centre. She also held a meeting with Sonia Gandhi in Delhi.

But her relationship with the Congress turned sour and it became public before the elections in Goa. Mamata clearly said she would not accept Opposition parties' unity under the leadership of Congress alleging the grand old party failed to retain its elected MLAs who defected to the BJP. She claimed TMC is the only political force which can defeat the BJP.

But she stood by Rahul Gandhi after his Lok Sabha membership was terminated and made it clear that she had no reservation on the issue of Opposition unity involving the Congress.

Mamata's call for Opposition unity is said to be politically significant in the backdrop of by-election in Sagardighi Assembly constituency in Murshidabad district where Muslims constitute 68 per cent of the electorate. Though the minority electorates are considered as Trinamool Congress's vote-bank, the Congress snatched the seat which the grand old party lost in the 2011 Assembly elections.

Reacting to her party's defeat, Mamata had said the by-election result was an isolated incident. "Congress, Left Front and BJP joined hands to fight against the TMC. There is no reason to believe that minority electorates are changing their political allegiance. From now, we will fight alone against the BJP," she had said.

After the by-election, BJP MLA and Leader of Opposition Suvendu Adhikari had said the party knew that it wouldn't win the seat. "We contested in the by-election to defeat the TMC," he had said.

Pawar to stay as NCP chief

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

AFTER all the drama, NCP supremo Sharad Pawar on Friday withdrew his resignation, checkmating nephew Ajit Pawar's ambitions to align the party with the BJP. Significantly, Ajit was missing when Pawar senior announced the withdrawal of his resignation.

Along with Ajit, powerful MLAs like Dilip Walse Patil, Chhagan Bhujbal and Dhananjay Munde, wanted to join hands with the BJP to enjoy power while staying out of the radar of central probe agencies. But Pawar saheb refused budge, said a well-placed source.

Since Ajit kept pestering him, Sharad Pawar called a meeting of his family members that included spouse Pratibha Pawar and daughter Supriya Sule to discuss the way forward. That was where it was decided that Sharad Pawar will step down and Supriya will handle the party at the national level while Ajit would do so at the state level. "It was meant to insulate Sharad Pawar from the fallout of Ajit's plan to ally with the BJP," the source said.

While Ajit wanted him to quit, Supriya was against it. A panel that discussed the resignation, passed a one-line resolution asking saheb to withdraw it. Later in the evening, he accepted their decision.

Landslide, falling stones block Joshimath road leading to China border

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

THE Joshimath-Malari-Niti highway, which connects the China border adjoining Chamoli, has been blocked near Niti village amid continuous landslides and blocking of the route on the Char Dham Yatra route. On Thursday evening, the Badrinath road, blocked by a fallen rock near Helang, was opened only on Friday morning when the second incident created more difficulties for the administration.

"A rock broke down on Friday after an explosion by the executing agency during the highway widening there, bringing a large amount of debris on the highway and blocking the way of local villagers as well as Army vehicles. The BRO has started removing the debris," district magistrate Himanshu Khurana told this paper.

He said the road was blocked around 7 pm on Thursday after some stones, debris and rocks fell from the hill during the road widening work near Helang, 13 km from Joshimath. This route reopened around 6am on Friday.

Joshimath Sub-divisional magistrate Kumkum Joshi told this paper that since the size of the rock that rolled down on the road in Helang was huge, it took time to cut it, due to which the opening of the route was delayed. The passengers were stopped at Joshimath. Rudraprayag was also alerted.

"This is a normal process, after the rainy season, the rocks start cracking due to the heat of the sun, due to which landslides and debris come onto the road," said Kumkum Joshi.

Anand Sailani, head of Helang village, said the work has been going on for a long time for the widening of the all-weather road. "Though traffic resumed on Friday morning, there is still a possibility of intermittent stone falls." Abhishek Tamta, a lodge owner in Helang, said, "The district administration has made food arrangements for passengers.

Day after HC stay, Lalu asks why BJP afraid of caste survey

RAMASHANKAR @Patna

EVEN as Bihar government on Friday filed a review petition in the court of Chief Justice Patna High Court, KV Chandran against the interim order passed by a division bench on Thursday putting a stay on caste based survey in the state, RJD chief Lalu Prasad said that it would take place as it was demand of majority of the people.

The state government has also requested the chief justice to hear the review petition on priority and dispose it in next 15 days as the court would be closed for summer vacation. Sources said the government is preparing to move SC to challenge the interim order of the HC. The government contended that over 80% of survey work has already been done and the rest was in progress. It had proposed to spend ₹500 crore on entire exercise for the benefit of the poor.

RJD chief and former chief minister Lalu Prasad attacked the BJP saying that it was afraid of caste based survey. "I think the saffron party is afraid of caste census. But it will take place as it is the demand of majority of the people in the country," he said, alleging that now people have understood BJP's maneuvering.

Revenge killing shocks MP village as 6 of family shot over land dispute

ANURAAG SINGH @Bhopal

NATIVES of Madhya Pradesh's Lepa village in Morena district, on Friday woke up to shocking news -- six members of a family, including three women have been shot dead in a case of revenge killing.

The assailants, who apparently blamed the victims' relatives for the murder of some people in their families in the past, were waiting for them, a woman who survived the bloodbath told reporters. The six deceased, included head of the family Gajendra Singh, his two sons Satya Prakash and Sanju and three daughter-in-laws Lesa, Babli and Manju, while two injured were identified as Vinod Singh and slain Gajendara's son Virendra.

The ghastly killing was allegedly executed to avenge the twin murders of 2013 over a land dispute in Lepa village. Entire massacre of six members of one family was caught on camera by villagers as the armed men gunned down the six members of the family one by one, even as the victim family men tried in vain to defend themselves with lathis.

Kusuma Tomar, who lost her husband, two sons and three daughters-in-law in the attack, said, "It was our relatives and not us, who were involved in the 2013 twin murders. But out of fear of being targeted by them, we had left the village and started living elsewhere. We had even paid them Rs 10 lakh and had also given our house to strike a compromise." On Friday morning, when Kusuma and others returned to the village from Ahmedabad after ten years, the killers were waiting for them, she said. "The police arrived on the scene after two hours," she claimed.

The killings took place around 10 am at Lepa village, about 60 km from the district headquarters. The village adjoins Bhidosa, the birthplace of athlete-turned-dacoit Paan Singh Tomar.

"Police have identified eight persons allegedly involved in the murder and a case has been registered against them," IG-Chambal Range Sushant Saxena said.

War on drug abuse: Valley villages set to be colour-coded to protect youth

FAYAZ WANI @Srinagar

AFTER a study revealed that Jammu and Kashmir has one million drug addicts and drug abuse among youngsters has been increasing, the administration has directed all the Deputy Commissioners of Kashmir to do a colour coding of the villages in their districts according to the number of individuals involved in substance use.

Divisional Commissioner Kashmir Vijay Kumar Bhiduri has directed all 10 Deputy Commissioners to classify villages in their districts on the basis of colour labels, basing it according to the number of individuals involved in substance use.

The villages, according to the Divisional Commissioner, should be labeled as green, yellow and red, depending upon the severity of drug abuse in the hamlets.

With drug addicts using abandoned buildings for substance use, all 10 Deputy Commissioners of the Valley have been asked to divert abandoned government buildings or unutilizsd buildings to the nearby departments, so that these structures shall not become hubs for drug addicts.

The officials have been directed to conduct regular surveillance of such places and to ensure that these buildings are not being used by drug addicts for usage of drugs.

According to the National Survey on Extent and Pattern of Substance Use in India, conducted by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment India through National Drug Dependence Treatment Centre (NDDTC) of AIIMS, New Delhi, there are nearly 10 lakh drug addicts in Jammu and Kashmir.

As per the data, 1,08,000 males and 36,000 females were found using cannabis, while 5,34,000 males and 8,000 females were found using opioids and 1,60,000 males and 8,000 females were found using sedatives of different kinds.

Similarly, 1,27,000 males and 7,000 females were noticed using inhalants and a large number of males and females were addicts of cocaine, Amphetamine-Type Stimulants (ATS) and Hallucinogens.

Drug abuse has become a major concern in Kashmir. A recent study by the Psychiatry Department of Government Medical College Srinagar revealed that Kashmir has surpassed Punjab in drug abuse cases and was currently positioned at No 2 among the top drug abuser regions in India, not far behind North East.

About 33,000 syringes are used to inject heroin by drug abusers in the Valley every day, most drug abusers are in the age group of 17-33 years, unemployed and on an average a single drug abuser spends ₹88,183 every month on substance abuse, as per the study.

Muslim boy tops UP Sanskrit board, scores 83%

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

SALAUDDIN's pride in his son Irfan (17) has a special meaning. Irfan has topped the merit list of Uttar Madhyama-II (class XII) of Uttar Pradesh Madhyamik Sanskrit Shiksha Parishad, securing 82.17% marks.

The results of Uttar Madhyama-II and Purva Madhyama -II (Class X) were declared in Lucknow on Wednesday. The exams were held from February 23 to March 20.

Irfan belongs to Chandauli, a district adjacent to Varanasi in eastern UP. He left behind Shivdayal Gupta of Gangotri Devi Vidyalaya, Ballia, and Vikas Yadav of Sri Ram Tahal Vidyalaya in Pratapgarh.

The two competitors were neck-and-neck at number two and three positions with 80.57% and 80.35% marks, respectively.

Irfan, a student of Sri Sampurnanand Vidyalaya in Chandauli, belongs to a family of devout Muslims. His father says Irfan made his choice clear to him that he wants to become a Sanskrit scholar and teach Sanskrit.

"He is the only Muslim among top 20 students who figure in the merit list of ClassXII and X students," says a beaming Salauddin.

WANTS TO BECOME A SANSKRIT SCHOLAR

17-year-old Irfan, a student of Sri Sampurnanand Vidyalaya in Chandauli district of eastern UP, belongs to a family of devout Muslims. His father says Irfan made his choice clear to him that he wants to become a Sanskrit scholar and teach Sanskrit. Irfan beat 13,738 students who took the Class-XII exam of Sanskrit Board. His father said the interest of my child matters the most," says Salauddin who has Irfan as his only child.

Irfan beat 13,738 students who took the Class-XII exam of Sanskrit Board.

Salauddhin (51) is a graduate and is engaged in farming in Jindaspur village under the Sakaldiha tehsil. "I am happy that Irfan has chosen a different path. He had a keen interest in Sanskrit right from the beginning and wanted to study it further. I had no problem. I encouraged him to go ahead as it was something different for a Muslim student. His diligence has borne fruits," says Salauddhin. "For me, the interest of my child matters the most," says Salauddin who has Irfan as his only child.

"I strongly disagree that a Muslim can't study Sanskrit or a Hindu can't be an Arabic or Urdu scholar," adds Salauddin. I have no problem with Irfan's choice of subject?" said Salauddhin.

The proud father recalls how his son developed an interest i n Sanskrit.

"He started studying Sanskrit in junior classes when it was a compulsory subject. It was his choice to opt for it in class 12th, so I encouraged him," he says. "Irfan wants to do Shastri (equivalent to B.Ed) and Acharya (equivalent to MA) and then wants to become a Sanskrit teacher."

Salauddin says he and his family never pushed Irfan to study. "He did not get any help from home because none of us knows Sanskrit. He would seek his teachers' help in school and would study at home for 3-4 hours daily," said Salauddin.

Jai Shyam Tripathi, the principal of the college where Irfan has studied, is all praise for his student. "He has always been one of the sincere students. He has brought laurels to the college."

However, the achiever himself was not home to enjoy his moment of glory for he was out on a trip. Like Irfan, Aditya Singh, a student of Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati in Ballia remained the top scorer at Purva Madhyama (high school level) with 92.5% marks.

There has been a growing trend in the Muslim community to shed stereotypes and study Sanskrit, an ancient language whose grammar was said to be developed in a scientific manner by Rishi Paanini. Last year, an Islamic institute in Kerala set an example by offering facilities to teach Sanskrit.

Students in long white robes and white head-dresses in an Islamic institution unwaveringly reciting 'slokas' and 'mantras' in Sanskrit under the watchful gaze of their Hindu gurus, is what sets apart a Muslim educational organization in Thrissur, Kerala.

HDFC twins, fear of global banking crisis pull down mkt

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

DRAGGED by HDFC twins on concerns of post-merger fund outflow and fear of a global banking crisis, domestic equity market tumbled more than 1% on Friday.

The BSE Benchmark Sensex plunged 695 points to close at 61,054, while the broader NSE Nifty50 fell 188 points to settle at 18,068. In addition, global cues were lacklustre as the European Central Bank (ECB) raised rates by 25bps and signalled the need for further rate hikes to control inflation. The US market also witnessed strong selling pressure on Thursday on worries that more regional banks are facing an existential crisis.

While there is no immediate fear that Indian banks may collapse like some foreign banks, it is the merger exercise at the country's largest private lender that seems to have spooked investors.

> Fall in index has faded bullish tone and indications are in favour of consolidation. Nifty has major support at 17,850 so any dip towards that may prompt fresh buying
> Ajit Mishra, VP - Technical Research, Religare Broking

The two heavyweights- HDFC and HDFC Bank - plunged up to 6% on Friday after global index MSCI said post the merger of HDFC and HDFC Bank, it will include the merged entity in its large-cap index. However, instead of using the adjustment factor of 1, the adjustment factor would be 0.5. The adjustment factor is the weightage of a stock assigned within a particular index. This, according to Nuvama Research, will result in an outflow of $150 to $200 million in the merged entity. MSCI's update and fall in share prices came even as HDFC on Thursday reported a 20% increase in its PAT to Rs 4,425 crore for the quarter ending March.

With the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) already giving the green signal to the approval, the merged entity is likely to have a combined asset base of Rs 18 lakh crore. "Markets reversed the gains of the previous session and shed a per cent on Friday. Apart from feeble global cues, the sharp cut in the HDFC twins was largely weighing on the sentiment," said Ajit Mishra, VP - Technical Research, Religare Broking.

"The decline in the index has faded the bullish tone and indications are now in favor of consolidation. On the index front, Nifty has major support at 17,850 so any dip towards that mark may prompt fresh buying," added Mishra.

India 'exciting' mkt, great to be here: Tim Cook

Apple CEO says company registered double-digit year-on-year growth in the country in March quarter of 2023

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

APPLE chief executive officer (CEO) Tim Cook on Friday said India is an 'incredibly exciting' market and it is great to be in the country as a lot of people entering the middle class who could be potential customer for the company's products.

The company registered a strong double-digit growth year-on-year (YoY) in the second quarter (Q2) of 2023, the Apple CEO said.

Cook, in Apple's March quarter earnings call for analysts, also said that he was "delighted and excited by the enthusiasm he saw about the brand in India". Cook recently visited India to unveil its first two retail stores in the country. "Looking at the business in India, we did set a quarterly record, grew very strong, double digits YoY. So it was quite a good quarter for us, taking a step back, India is an incredibly exciting market. It's a major focus for us. I was just there, and the dynamism in the market, the vibrancy is unbelievable," said Cook.

Apple reported quarterly revenue of $94.8 billion, down 3% on-year, with iPhone sales contributing $51.3 billion. However, the company said it has witnessed stellar quarter in emerging markets, including Indonesia, Mexico, the Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, the UAE, Brazil and Malaysia.

Sharing his experience of his recent India visit, Tim Cook said he couldn't have been more delighted by the excitement and enthusiasm of the customers, developers, creators and team members in India. "Over time, we've been expanding our operations there to serve more customers, and three years ago, we launched the Apple Store online, and then, we launched two stores just a few weeks ago, and they're off to a great start, one in Mumbai and one in Delhi," he added.

For the last one year, Apple has performed very well in Indian market. According to CyberMedia Research (CMR), the iPhone maker captured 4% market share in the country with a 17% YoY increase in its shipments in 2022. The company sold nearly 6.7 million units in 2022, as against 4.8 million in 2021 and 2.7 million in 2020.

"What I do see in India is a lot of people entering the middle class, and I'm hopeful that we can convince some number of them to buy an iPhone and we'll see how that works out. But right now, it's working out well," he added. On opportunity across the board, including in streaming services, Cook said Average revenue per user (ARPU) is much lower in India than other regions whether it is TV, movie streaming or music.

Seen stellar quarter in emerging markets: Cook

Tim Cook, in Apple's March quarter earnings call, said he was "delighted and excited by the enthusiasm he saw about the brand in India". Cook recently visited India to unveil its first two retail stores in the country. Company said it has witnessed stellar quarter in emerging markets.

Rupee may see 80/$ level in FY24 on the back of narrowing CAD, fall in dollar

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

WEAKENING dollar, structural changes in current account deficit (CAD) and global slowdown seem to support Indian rupee (INR) against the US dollar as experts say rupee could regain some lost ground and go back to 80 per USD levels.

The Indian currency appreciated by 1% since start of FY24 and is currently trading at 81.74. The Indian currency depreciated 7.8% in FY 23, while touching its lowest at 83.28 in October. Madhavi Arora, Lead Economist, Emkay Global Financial Services, also echoed the same viewpoint. She expects INR to touch 80 again on the back of narrowing CAD and lowering dollar. "Yes we would see it touching 80 again. The current account ideally is looking positive for India for next year because of the lever with services and conventional services going up. Overall current account sustainability should be in a better shape whereas, at the same time whether it will be able to sustain below 79 for a longer period this year, we will have to see," Arora said.

Rumki Majumdar, economist with Deloitte India, says INR depreciated over the past one year primarily because of the strengthening of the dollar index. "But with the impending US and global slowdown, the dollar value is weakening. This should help INR to gain back some strength," she says

One of the major reasons that is helping rupee become stronger is the structural change in India's current account is. In FY24, the current account deficit is estimated to be 1.4% of GDP from 2.1% of GDP in FY23. As per Majumdar, India's decision to use INR for global trade settlement, ability to import oil at discounted prices, and rising services export will likely reduce demand for the dollar and ease pressure on INR, as per Majumdar.

SRI LANKA

FOREIGN RESERVES IMPROVE TO $2.69 BN IN MARCH

The foreign currency reserves of debt-ridden Sri Lanka improved to $2.69 billion in March 2023 from a mere $50 million in May last year, showed data released by the country's central bank on Friday . This indicates a marginal improvement of the island nation's economy. Sri Lanka has been in reeling under financial turmoil and its total debt is $83.6 billion, of which foreign debt amounts to $42.6 billion externally and domestic debt amounts to $42 billion. In April 2022, the country declared its first-ever debt default, the worst economic crisis since its independence from Britain in 1948, triggered by forex shortages that sparked public protests. According to the Central Bank of Sri Lanka data, the country's foreign currency reserves had improved to $2.69 billion in March 2023, an improvement from under $50 million in May last year. Analysts said the $2.69 billion, includes a $1.4 billion currency swap from China with conditions attached to its usage.

PAKISTAN

MAY PAY FOR RUSSIAN CRUDE IN CHINESE CURRENCY

Cash-strapped Pakistan could use Chinese Yuan to pay for the 750,000 barrels of discounted Russian crude oil set to be imported in June, according to a media report. The country placed its first order for discounted Russian crude oil last month. Pakistan, which is grappling with high external debt and a weak local currency, is hopeful that snapping crude at discounted rate will stabilise oil prices in the country. According to a PTI report, Russia refused to provide Pakistan with a 30% discount on its crude in December last year. However, afterward a Russian delegation arrived in Islamabad in January this year to hold talks and settle technical issues such as insurance and mortgage. Energy accounts for the most significant share of Pakistan's imports, and cheaper oil from Russia will help Pakistan in containing the ballooning trade deficit and balance-of-payments crisis.

ASIA

SHARES MOSTLY TRADE IN GREEN

Asian shares mostly traded in green on Friday even as jittery investors remained nervous about the US banking sector following another rout in stocks of regional lenders. MSCI's broadest index of Asia-Pacific shares outside Japan was 0.44% higher. Hong Kong's Hang Seng rose 0.5% to 20,049.31 while Shanghai Composite tumbled 0.48% to 3,334.50. Japan remains shut for holiday, while Australia's S&P/ASX 200 index fell 0.06%. South Korean index KOSPI remained flat at 2,500.94.Wall Street ended lower on Thursday on fears about the health of US lenders as pressure grows on regulators to take more steps to shore up the country's banking sector. Shares of U.S. regional banks tumbled this week after the collapse of First Republic Bank over the weekend that has brought back fears of a financial sector crisis. The US Federal Reserve on Wednesday raised interest rates by 25 basis points; however, it hinted that its marathon hiking cycle may be ending.

Q1 global smartphone market declines 14%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU@ New Delhi

THE global smartphone market declined by 14% year-on-year and 7% quarterly to 280.2 million units in Q1, 2023, according to the latest research from Counterpoint's market monitor service.

The report also noted that Apple and Samsung cumulatively captured 96% of global smartphone operating profits in Q1 and remained the most profitable brands. The revenue and profits of China's Xiaomi, Oppo, and Vivo declined YoY in the quarter. "Smartphone shipments declined further in Q1, 2023, following the weakest holiday-season quarter since 2013, as the slower-than-expected recovery in China was marred by alarming bank failures on both sides of the Atlantic further weakening consumer confidence in the face of unrelenting market volatility," said Harmeet Singh Walia, Senior Analyst at Counterpoint.

The smartphone market was also hit by some major brands supplying fewer new devices to a market struggling with high inventories at a time when consumers are choosing to renew less often, but with more durable smartphones when they do buy. Consequently, global smartphone revenue and operating profit also declined, although not as much as shipments. This was due, in part, to the lower-than-usual decline in Apple's shipments, to 58 million units in Q1 2023. Apple managed to capture nearly half of all smartphone revenues, while Samsung's shipments declined 19% YoY.

Govt to launch special drive to detect fake GSTINs

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

THE government is planning a major crackdown on GST evasion with a nation-wide special drive to detect fake and suspicious GST registrations.

The principal commissioner of GST in an internal letter to all principal chief commissioners, chief commissioners and principal commissioners has said the fake registrations are being used to fraudulently pass on input tax credit to unscrupulous recipients by issuing invoices without any underlying supply of goods or services or both. In order to curb this menace and check loss of revenue, the GST department is planning a coordinated drive from May 16 to July 15, 2023, to detect such entities. The decision to launch a special drive was taken during the National Coordination Meeting of the state and central GST officers held on April 24, 2023.

It has been decided that common guidelines will be issued to ensure uniformity in the action by the field formations and for effective coordination and monitoring of the action taken during the special drive.

GST Network, the entity that provides IT backbone for administration of GST, will identify fake GST Identification Numbers (GSTINs) and share the same with state and central tax authorities for necessary action. Field formations may also supplement this list by data analysis at their own end using various available analytical tools as well as through human intelligence, Aadhar database, and other local learnings.

Once the list is provided to field officers, suspicious GSTINs will be verified in a time-bound manner. If, after detailed verification, it is found that the taxpayer is non-existent and fictitious, then the tax officer may initiate action for suspension and cancellation of the registration of the taxpayer.

The GST department has so far unearthed GST frauds amounting to ₹1.01 lakh crore and recovered ₹21,000 crore in taxes in 2022-23.

CAs, CS unhappy with govt move to bring them under PMLA

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

Practicing chartered accountants (CAs), company secretaries (CSs) and cost and work accountants (CWAs) have expressed unhappiness over bringing them under the prevention of money laundering act (PMLA).

These professionals say they are the easy target of the government unlike lawyers who have been excluded from this law. "When it comes to advocates, goods and services tax (GST) law has a special provision that GST will be paid under reverse charge by the person who is receiving services. Similarly, even for PMLA, advocates have been excluded," Pune-based CA Pritam Mahure said. He added that this is not appropriate as all professionals should be treated equally in the eyes of law.

Delhi-based CA Rajat Mohan also criticised the government's move to single out certain professionals. "Government of India isolating select professions over the menace would not be a proper long-term policy framework for the economy. Policymakers must work on an inclusive solution whereby trouble makers, irrespective of their educational background, are reprimanded," Mohan added.

Meanwhile, another Delhi-based CA, who didn't want to be quoted, said, "Why only target CA/CS/CWAs. Lawyers and other professionals also do financial transactions on behalf of their clients. Why they have been excluded from this law."

The government on Thursday said the financial transactions made by chartered accountants, company secretaries and cost accountants on behalf of their clients will now come under PMLA.

As per the finance ministry notification, such transactions include buying and selling of any immovable property; managing a client's money, securities or other assets; managing bank, savings or securities accounts; organising contributions to create, operate or manage companies; creating, operating and managing companies, limited liability partnerships or trusts, and buying and selling entities.

Meesho fires 251, aims to achieve break-even this year

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU@ Mumbai

SOFTBANK-backed e-commerce firm Meesho laid off 251 employees, 15% of its workforce to cut costs and as part of its efforts to achieve profitability.

The Bengaluru-headquartered start-up had over 1,800 employees before the layoffs were announced. Meesho founder and CEO Vidit Aatrey in an email to employees informed about the decision and announced that all the affected employees will get one month extra severance pay beyond the notice period as well as employee stock ownership plan (ESOPs), irrespective of the period they have been with the company.

"We are reducing size of the workforce by 15%, affecting 251 employees," Aatrey said in an internal email. He said the firm grew 10 times from 2020 to 2022, which was aided by COVID tailwinds and aggressive investments.

"Even as we tracked our plans, the macro climate considerably changed. As a result, we have had to accelerate our timeline to profitability as part of Project Redbull, while readjusting our GMV growth goals to 30% YoY," he said. "While our cash reserves buffer us well for these harsh circumstances, we need to stay prudent on cost front," Aatrey added.

A recent Jefferies report had said Meesho is already contribution-margin positive and it is nearing zero cash burn and is on track to achieve EBITDA breakeven this year.

CAN CSK BREAK HOME STREAK?

The last time Chennai beat Mumbai at Chepauk was in 2010. MI is one team that has constantly pushed the MS Dhoni-led side to its limits, and have a 6-2 record against them in Chennai. Can the team in yellow finally break the streak to beat Mumbai at their home

WILL TIM DO A POLLARD?

Whenever MI played in Chennai, Kieron Pollard has been the nemesis more often than not for the home team. Tim David, who seem to be transitioning into the role of that Pollard played for years in the middle-order, will be playing here for the first time. Can he replicate what Pollard has done in the past?

DO OR DIE FOR DELHI

As is the case for Kolkata and Hyderabad, Delhi too have to win the rest of the their games to stay alive in the competition. They managed to steal a win against Gujarat Titans but will be up against a firm challenge from RCB

Clash of titans: Intriguing battle on cards

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

WHEN two captains who have nine IPL titles between themselves go against each other there are bound to be tremors. A sell-out crowd is eagerly waiting to witness MS Dhoni take on India skipper Rohit Sharma in what could be one of the final clashes of one of finest connoisseurs of the game.

CSK have 11 points from 10 games, while Mumbai have 10 points from nine games. If one looks at the pattern of how teams make it to the play-offs, one needs to win a minimum of eight games to make it to the final round. CSK has four games left and must win a minimum of three to keep their hopes alive. ''You don't want to calculate what you have to win and what you don't have to win. We of course had the rain that (last) game that has given us that extra point, but we just have to take every game as it comes and try and win every match. This tournament is about pressure from the start, but you just take each game as it comes and try and win them as you can,'' said bowling consultant Eric Simons on the eve of the clash.

CSK openers Ruturaj Gaikwad and Devon Conway have been scoring the bulk of runs for the hosts in turns. Simons said that Conway's ability to play square of the wicket and the knack of picking up the gaps is what makes him stand out. ''Conway is an extremely versatile, difficult batter to bowl dot balls to and possesses a lot of game awareness,'' said Simons.

Meanwhile, Conway's counterpart Ishan Kishan was confident that he and Mumbai are ready to take on CSK at their den. His confidence stems from the fact that his team won the last two games in contrasting styles. Since Mumbai has been chasing well, it should not come as a surprise if they prefer the same on Saturday.

''That's not my call anyway, I think the management will decide what to do but our intent is going to be very clear. Like if the ball is there to be hit, we'll go for it because you know in T20 cricket, you just need one or two good overs. We know they (CSK) have got plenty of spinners on their side. Because we have played so many years of IPL we know how the wicket is going to play especially in Chennai, so we are ready for any condition,'' said Kishan.

The southpaw believed that a good start was imperative during a chase and also spoke about the importance of a positive mindset that helped him put Mumbai on front foot against Punjab Kings. ''I think it's very important when you're chasing such a big total. You need your powerplay to be good. It was important not to let the bowlers dominate and instead put pressure on them. So that's the positive mindset we keep on in every game,'' revealed Kishan.

Every time these to teams have played in Chennai, they have produced some epic contests in the past decade, thanks to Kieron Pollard, Dwayne Smith, Dwayne Bravo and Hardik Pandya. While many of them have moved on to different franchises or coaching, there are two names that still remains — Sharma and Dhoni. Will the Chennai's Thala be able to finally get better of Sharma the captain at his home ground?

Rashid, Noor shine for GT

JAIPUR: Rajasthan Royals surrendered against the Gujarat Titans' duo of Rashid Khan and Noor Ahmad to be bundled out for 118, as the two Afghan spinners shared five wickets in their Indian Premier League contest here on Friday. RR's decision to bat after winning the toss backfired as their batting crumbled against Rashid, who returned 4-0-14-3 to spark a collapse, and Noor, who registered 3-0-25-2. In reply, Shubman Gill and Wriddhiman Saha played sensibly to help GT get a solid start. Gill (36) got out when the score was 71 and it was easy for the visitors from there on. Captain Hardik Pandya wasted no time and cleared the ropes three times to score 15-ball 39. Saha finished with 34-ball 41 as GT won by nine wickets and 37 balls to spare. With this victory, GT bolstered their lead by three points.

Brief scores: RR 118 in 17.5 ovs (Samson 30; Rashid 3/14, Noor 2/25) lost to GT 119/1 in 13.5 ovs (Saha 41 n.o, Hardik 39 n.o)

NEERAJ LEADS PACK WITH BIG 88.67M THROW

Indian makes a mark in his first attempt of the season at Doha Diamond League

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

JUST a day before the competition, Neeraj Chopra's coach Klaus Bartonietz had spoken about strong wind into which the javelin throwers would be running to during the Diamond League opener at Doha on Friday. "It had been windy," he said. Nothing of a concern though as all throwers will face the same wind. However, for an athlete a small variation in conditions require adjustments. That is something the team evaluates to find the best possible solution and Neeraj's team also would do the same.

When the wind acts as a resistance, it's always tricky and athletes may not realise how much energy has been expended. Olympic champion Neeraj Chopra, with a black bandana wrapped around his forehead and a belt strapped around his waist, ran and opened the season with a monstrous 88.67m. The throw is also the best in the world this season. He had mentioned during the press conference on Thursday that Doha is famous for 90m. And the mark was within his grasp. World champion Anderson Peters of Grenada threw 85.88m in his first effort. As the night thickened, the throws started to get better.

Neeraj prefers to not leave things until the later stages. Time and again he had said that he would always want to get the first three throws big and then relax. At the Olympics it was the second throw, at other major events like the Diamond League it has been usually the first three throws. At the World Championships in Eugene last year, he was not comfortable leaving it to the fourth, when he managed to win silver. Even on Friday, his second throw was 86.04m and Jakub Vadlejch had a second of 88.63m and was behind Neeraj on the leaderboard. Peters could manage 83.68m. Until the six rounds, Neeraj remained as the leader. In the end, Vadlejch and Petters finished behind him. Neeraj's throw will also be the world leader as of now. "It was a very hard win, but Im happy," he was quoted by Doha Diamond League website. "It's a really good start for me. I hope to come in the first place in the next competitions and to be consistent during this season."

"I feel really good, today was challenging for all athletes, but I'm still satisfied with my result. It was a good start and it's a great atmosphere. Lot of people came to support me and they are really happy. For this season I plan to stay fit and do more than I can."

Mirabai finishes fifth at Asian Championships

JINJU (KOREA): Star Indian weightlifter Mirabai Chanu's Asian Championship campaign did not go as per plan as she faltered in snatch and chose not to make her last two clean and jerk attempts to finish fifth here on Friday. The Tokyo Olympics silver medallist, competing in the 49kg category, managed to lift 85kg in snatch and 109kg in clean and jerk for an overall effort of 194kg, a whopping 13kg less than her personal best of 207kg.

LONDON: Katherine Sciver-Brunt has announced her retirement from international cricket. The right-arm seamer, who made her England debut in 2004, has played 267 times for her country, taking 335 wickets across all formats. She won three World Cups and four Ashes series. Top wrestlers form two panels to decide future

AGENCIES @New Delhi

THE protesting wrestlers on Friday formed two committees to advice them on the future course of action in their fight against outgoing Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) chief Brijbhushan Sharan Singh.

The aggrieved wrestlers started the day contemplating their next move after the Supreme Court closed proceedings on their plea even as Sports Minister Anurag Thakur requested them to have faith in the system, saying the investigation will make everything crystal clear. "Vinesh is discussing it with the legal team. We will inform tomorrow. Today we made two committee -- one is a 31-member committee and the second is a nine-member one. Khap panchayat, farmers and women organisations are there in 31 member committee. The nine-member committee will decide on the wrestling part," said Bajrang Punia.

"I request the sports minister to come and stand on the side of truth. We will restart our fight, maybe by going to the high court. This fight is not restricted to three wrestlers," he added.

With the Delhi Police blocking the entry of more wrestlers to the protest site, only a few farmers could reach Jantar Mantar on Friday to extend their support.

The usual fervour was missing as the protest entered the 13th day though political and farmer leaders continued to visit the wrestlers. Congress leaders Kumari Selja, Kiran Choudhary and Anil Kumar extended their support to the grapplers. The police have also recorded statements of five wrestlers, including the minor.

Hussamuddin marches on, Ashish out

ENS/AGENCIES

IT was a mixed day for India in the ongoing IBA Men's World Boxing Championships on Friday.

In-form Mohammad Hussamuddin, the 2022 Asian Championships and Commonwealth Games bronze medallist, put up an impressive fight to get the better of China's Lyu Ping in his 57kg Round of 32 bout in Tashkent (Uzbekistan). Tokyo Olympian Ashish Chaudhary (80kg) also displayed a lot of courage before bowing out.

The odds were heavily against Ashish, who was competing in the 80kg weight category for the first time in the marquee event. He was up against two-time Olympic champion Arlen Lopez of Cuba on the day. Despite the goliath challenge in front of him, Ashish did not seem fazed and went after Arlen from the word go.

But the Cuban boxer was up to the task and hit some good counter-punches to pocket the opening round. In the second round, Ashish kept up the intensity level and continued to go after his opponent. He was rewarded for his persistence as he won the second. With all to play for in the final round, both boxers were engaged in a tough tussle. But it was the Cuban boxer whose hand was raised after he was adjudged winner after bout review (5-2 verdict).

While Ashish was engaged in one of the toughest fights of his career, Hussamuddin had no problems dispatching his Chinese opponent. Hussamuddin was too quick for Lyu and won the bout by 5-0 verdict. Russia's Savvin Eduard awaits Hussamuddin in the pre-quarterfinals.

Later, Naveen Kumar (92kg) also won his bout to advance.

Akash (67kg) and Nishant Dev (71kg) will be in action on Saturday.

Ten Hag expects United to seal CL spot despite loss

AFP @London

ERIK ten Hag insists Manchester United's last-gasp defeat at Brighton will not derail their bid to qualify for the Champions League.

Alexis Mac Allister's stoppage-time penalty gave Brighton a 1-0 win against United on Thursday.

Ten Hag's fourth placed side are now just four points above fifth placed Liverpool, although they hold a vital game in hand over Jurgen Klopp's men.

United have proven adept at recovering from setbacks this season and Ten Hag is confident they will show that determined streak again as they look wrap up a top four finish in the Premier League. "We have every time in this season when we had a defeat, we bounce back. So, I count on my players, I count on my team. We have to do it again," Ten Hag said ahead of Sunday's trip to West Ham. "There is no time to stay in this disappointment, so in one hour we go onto the game against West Ham United. All focus on that.

"We prepare for them, we make a good plan, the players have to take responsibility and they will do. I count on them.

"They have to do it and they can do it because we have the evidence in the season. Every time when we had disappointments, they bounce back."

Alexis Mac Allister's stoppage-time penalty gave Brighton a 1-0 win against United

Ten Hag is adamant there is no reason to panic about United's top four hopes, despite Liverpool's winning run coming just in time to put them back in the hunt.

"We had a quite good run from the last five, four wins and a draw before Brighton," he said.

"We have everything in our hands, so we have to focus on our performance. I trust my players, so I am quite convinced about that."

United haven't won the Champions League since 2008 and last appeared in the final in 2011. But the tournament is part of the club's DNA and Ten Hag is well aware how important it is to feature in Europe's elite club competition.

WAGNER GROUP THREATENS TO PULL OUT OF BAKHMUT

MOSCOW

RUSSIAN paramilitary leader Yevgeny Prigozhin on Friday said he will withdraw his troops from the Ukrainian city of Bakhmut on May 10 because of ammunition shortages.

In a series of scathing videos, Prigozhin blamed Defence Minister Sergei Shoigu and Chief of General Staff Valery Gerasimov for "tens of thousands" of killed and wounded Russian fighters in Ukraine, exposing a deep rift in Russian ranks ahead of an expected Ukrainian offensive.

He vowed to hold them to account over what he said was a failure to provide fighters from his mercenary group, Wagner, with sufficient ammunition.

"For the tens of thousands killed and wounded, they will bear responsibility in front of their mothers and children, I will achieve that," he said.

"Their unprofessionalism is destroying tens of thousands of Russian guys and that is unforgivable."

Wagner has spearheaded the grinding, months-long Russian assault on Bakhmut, almost capturing the city in the longest and bloodiest battle of the campaign. While Prigozhin has made similar threats to pull out in the past, the emotive language and the scathing personal criticism of the leaders of Russia's campaign in Ukraine were unprecedented.

"On May 10, 2023 we will have to hand over our positions in Bakhmut to units of the defence ministry and withdraw Wagner units to rear camps to lick our wounds," Prigozhin said in a written statement on Telegram. "I will pull out Wagner units from Bakhmut because, in the absence of ammunition, they are facing a senseless death," he said, adding that he was now expecting a plan from the military on how to implement the withdrawal. Ukraine said Friday that Russia was still "doing their best to take control of Bakhmut" in time for World War II Victory Day celebrations on May 9 — Moscow's most important holiday and a central event under President Vladimir Putin's rule. Ukraine is preparing a major offensive against Russian forces and experts say a series of sabotage attacks and long-distance strikes behind Russian lines are in preparation for that. AFP

CORONATION TODAY

CHARLES, WHO ACCEDED TO THE BRITISH THRONE ON THE PASSING OF QUEEN ELIZABETH II IN SEPTEMBER LAST YEAR, WILL BE FORMALLY CROWNED KING AT A SOLEMN RELIGIOUS CEREMONY AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY IN LONDON ON SATURDAY, LAST SEEN 70 YEARS AGO FOR HIS LATE MOTHER

BEST OF VESTMENTS

ROBE OF STATE: King Charles will arrive at the abbey in King George VI's crimson velvet Robe of State

The lining and lace has been conserved in advance of the coronation by Ede and Ravenscroft

London's oldest tailor has made garments for every coronation since that of King William III and Queen Mary II in 1689

WHTE LINEN SHIRT: The sovereign will wear a simple white linen shirt for his anointment with holy oil

COLOMBIUM SINDONIS: Latin for shroud tunic, this is worn after the anointing. The sleeveless white linen tunic has a plain collar fastened with a single button. It was worn by King George VI

SUPERTUNICA: The glittering Supertunica is a full-length, sleeved coat of gold silk worn after the anointing ceremony

IMPERIAL MANTLE: The floor-length cloak is worn over the Supertunica. It was made for the coronation of King George IV in 1821 and is the oldest vestment to be used. It is made of cloth of gold woven in coloured threads

THE JEWELS

- The St Edward's Crown: The centrepiece of the Crown Jewels will be placed on Charles's head during the ceremony. Used only for coronations, it was last worn in 1953 by his mother, Queen Elizabeth II. The solid gold crown is set with semi-precious stones, including rubies, amethysts and sapphires
- Imperial State Crown: The king will also wear the Imperial State Crown, which was last seen at the state funeral of Queen Elizabeth II in September last year. The crown includes the Cullinan II diamond, the second-largest stone cut from the Cullinan diamond, which the Royal Collection Trust says is the largest diamond ever discovered

The number of anticipated guests including foreign heads of state

29,000
police officers will take part in one of the UK's most significant security operations ever. Snipers will be stationed on rooftops in central London, while the skies above the British capital will also be closely watched. No drones or planes are permitted to fly over central London

70 YEARS
since Queen Elizabeth II's coronation in June 1953. It was the first to be televised live

51%
of respondents of a survey believe the ceremony should not be paid for by the government

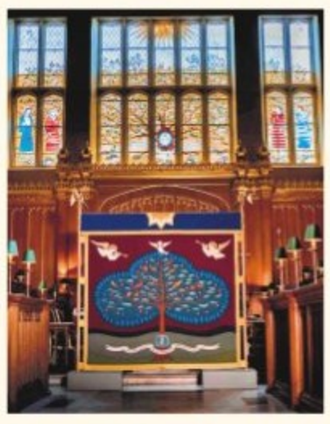
WESTMINSTER ABBEY: The central Lonodn church has been the setting of the ritual since William the Conqueror was crowned in 1066. Charles will be the 40th reigning monarch crowned in at the church

CORONATION'S PURPOSE

The deeply religious and regalia-heavy event is a formal confirmation of his role as head of state and titular head of the Church of England and was intended to show the king's authority was derived from God

ANGER OVER CEREMONY'S PRICE TAG

As the UK grapples with a cost-of-living crisis and widespread strikes over pay, some Britons are questioning why taxpayers have to foot the bill for the lavish ceremony



ANOINTING SCREEN: The most important moment is the act of anointing a monarch with holy oil, which can be traced as far back as the 7th century, and signals that the monarch has been chosen by God. It is only seen by the sovereign and the Archbishop of Canterbury and will take place behind the anointing screen

$126 million
THE ESTIMATED COST OF THE CEREMONY

KING OF 15 COUNTRIES

Charles's position looks increasingly tenuous as the hereditary monarch in 14 Commonwealth countries besides the UK

Australia and Jamaica are already indicating moves towards becoming republics

HOLY OIL The sacred chrism oil that will be used to anoint Charles was consecrated at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem . It will be administered using a 12th-century silver-gilt spoon that is the oldest artifact among the Crown Jewels

A WALK DOWN MEMORY LANE

- Charles served in the Royal Navy from 1971 to 1976, commanding a coastal minehunter for his last 10 months. He served in the Caribbean and around the Pacific and learned to fly helicopters
- He went to Trinity College at the University of Cambridge, becoming the first heir to the throne to take a degree, graduating in 1970
- Charles was the longest-serving heir apparent in British history, from the age of three in 1952 to his accession in 2022. He was also the longest-serving Prince of Wales
- He was invested as prince of Wales at Caernarfon Castle in 1969. Aged 20, he spoke in Welsh, having learnt the language in preparation

NOD TO ALL FAITHS

In a nod to the change in the religious makeup of the United Kingdom, Buddhist, Hindu, Jewish, Muslim and Sikh religious leaders will play a role at the coronation. That reflects Charles' vow to be "the defender of faiths," and not the "defender of the faith"

Setback for Sunak as party suffers losses in local polls seen as vote on leadership

LONDON

BRITAIN'S ruling Conservatives suffered high-profile losses as results poured in Friday from Prime Minister Rishi Sunak's first major electoral test since he took office last year.

In the depths of the worst cost-of-living crisis in decades, the local council elections held across swathes of England on Thursday illuminated the main parties' standing ahead of a UK-wide general election expected next year.

Sunak admitted it was not looking good for his Tories.

"It's always disappointing to lose hard-working Conservative councillors," the prime minister told Sky News.

But addressing Conservative campaign workers in London, he saw no "massive groundswell of movement towards the Labour Party or excitement for its agenda".

Vote counting will only be complete later Friday, just as Britain gears up for Saturday's coronation of King Charles III. But the main opposition Labour party crowed that the trend was already clear from the 230 English districts electing more than 8,000 council seats.

Labour leader Keir Starmer said the party had clinched "fantastic results across the country" in "places we need to win". "Make no mistake, we are on course for a Labour majority at the next general election," he told cheering activists in Medway, southeast England, one of the councils seized by his party from the Tories.

At 12.20 pm (local time), 74 councils had declared their results. Sunak's Conservatives had lost 262 seats -- one-third of the total they were defending so far.

Transport minister Huw Merriman indicated his party was paying the price for the chaotic weeks last year when it ditched Boris Johnson and then Liz Truss as leader in quick succession.

Local constituents have been "talking about older news about former prime ministers -- but saying your current leader seems to have what it takes", he told the BBC, insisting that Sunak was on the right track.

Labour was up 148 seats. Along with Medway, it took control of other prized targets such as Plymouth in southwest England and Stoke-on-Trent in the Midlands — where in 2016, 70% of voters backed Brexit. AFP

6 YARDS OF FUNK

From Naomi Campbell's saree-gown to Priyanka Chopra's innovative drape – many women are shunning traditional ways of sporting a saree to make the six-yard garment more fun

SUPERMODEL Naomi Campbell turned heads at the Met Gala 2023, with a gown draped like a saree. Campbell's gown featured pink fabric draped over one shoulder teamed with a shimmering silver sequin bodice. Even Priyanka Chopra deconstructed a vintage Banarasi saree in a contemporary style and paired it with a tube top, which gave this six-yard fabric a modern twist.

Not just celebrities, many women are experimenting beyond the conventional method and styling this traditional piece of attire in contemporary ways. For example, model Pranwesha Kundu styles a simple black chiffon saree with a tube black corset top along with a black sequined detachable sleeve. "That was something that I tried with pants but since it was a festival, I gave the saree a shot. Nowadays, many stylists and fashion content creators are showing fun ways of wearing a saree," says Kundu.

As many western outfits mostly suit the theme of an event, experts say it was a welcome shift to have a gown with saree drape interpretations. Designer Laxmi Krishna says actor Margot Robbie's gown was a classic example of that. The actor, who will be playing the title role in Barbie, wore a black silk chiffon gown with a plastic and gold chain detailing at the waist, first worn by Cindy Crawford as part of Chanel Haute Couture spring/summer 1993 collection.

"The one that she wore was a gown but the drapes and cuts looked like a saree. It looked like a modern ready-to-wear saree," explains Krishna. Putting things in more practical terms, she says, she has customised sarees according to the client's requirement. "Sometimes I have clients who want to wear a saree because elders are present at the event but also want to have a modern take on it. I try to give them some extra frills or make them dhoti pants," says Krishna, adding the latest she has made is a saree attached to pants.

Ofelia Sarkar, an HR professional and saree admirer, adds if you are wearing a dhoti-style draped saree or even a pant and saree combo, then teaming it with high boots will make it look edgy. "I had teamed a half saree, which has just the pleats and the pallu, with pants and boots. It looked really stylish. Being Bengali, I have always seen my mother and grandmother wearing sarees every day, now it is nice to see the international actors and models following the same," says Sarkar.

Tiala, an actor and model, says the saree could be daunting initially but there are some easier drapes or styles that can be opted for. "Saree is a beautiful attire. Sometimes you don't have to over-complicate the drapes to give a modern take. You can team it up with a crop top or a sports bra, and it looks equally easygoing," she says.

Mystical allure of RUDRAKSHA

Discover the Healing Powers of the Magical Beads

The Rudraksha is a symbolic representation of the eleven Rudras, which are the different manifestations of Lord Shiva. It is an excellent choice for individuals who seek to conquer themselves and maintain good physical and mental health. Wearing a Rudraksha can enhance one's speech, as well as develop exceptional business, negotiation, and intellectual abilities, says Arvind P Bankaar of Rudrajyoothi, one of the trusted sources of Rudraksha beads

RUDRAKSHA stones, with their mystical allure and ancient heritage, are the dried seeds of the Rudraksha fruit. Delicately ensconced within an inedible blue outer fruit, these precious "blueberry beads" are adorned with clefts on their surface known as Mukhi's. For countless centuries, seekers of enlightenment and self-empowerment have worn Rudraksha to harness its legendary protective properties.

Amidst the tumultuous times of economic uncertainty, political unrest, and climate change, the unwavering reverence for Rudraksha persists. As the ever-increasing construction, radiation exposure, and pollution levels continue to affect our environment, Geopathic stress has emerged as a silent threat to our well-being. This insidious force arises from the earth's inherent radiation, attacking and disrupting human peace by adversely affecting the brain.

However, wearing the sacred Rudraksha beads can help alleviate this stress by neutralizing and balancing our neurological patterns. The wearer is bestowed with a heightened sense of analytical thinking, sharpened intelligence, and a newfound sense of control over their senses and mind. It is known to promote prosperity, fame, and leadership qualities while removing obstacles and paving the path to success and fulfillment. Truly, the Rudraksha beads are a precious gift from nature, imbued with mystical properties that can unlock the full potential of our minds and spirits.

At Rudrajyoothi, we take great pride in sourcing the most exquisite Rudraksha beads directly from genuine farmers. Our experts meticulously select only the best seeds with discerning eyes, carefully scrutinizing each one for its weight, roundness, and visible faces.

Our collection boasts of genuine Nepal Rudraksha, renowned for its unparalleled potency and efficacy. In fact, ancient scriptures such as the Shiv Puran, Rudraksha Jabola Upnishad, and Shrimad Devi Bhagwatam extol the virtues of this divine bead. Revered as the most powerful Rudraksh, it is sourced from the Himalayan region of Nepal, where the majestic Kailash, home to Lord Shiva, reigns supreme.

Each Rudraksha in our collection is as precious as the next, featuring a size reminiscent of the Amla fruit, a natural hole for stringing, distinct and clear lines (mukhis) on the surface, and clear visible compartments. We take great care to ensure that every Rudraksha bead is authentic and imbued with the sacred energy and power that has made it a beloved talisman for countless generations.

Superior Rudrakshas are those that are strong and not brittle. Brittle Rudrakshas come from unripe fruits and will lose grooves in just a few years, making them not good for use. Uneven Rudrakshas should also be avoided as they are inferior to even Rudrakshas. A beautiful Rudraksha should be round with clear grooves and lines. Malformed Rudrakshas should not be used as they can result in poverty, while Rudrakshas with few grooves represent low energy.

The best Rudraksha beads are those that dry up on the tree itself. These beads will have absorbed solar power and cosmic energy as they ripen and will gain a magnetic field as they dry up. In contrast, Rudraksha beads from unripe fruits or those that have fallen on the ground after ripening are of lower quality.

Of all Rudraksha beads, those with a natural central hole are of supreme quality, although they are very rare, with only 0.01% of all Rudrakshas being naturally holed. For the remaining Rudrakshas, a hole has to be made.

At Rudrajyoothi, our mission is to help you unlock the full potential of these mystical beads by offering personalized recommendations based on your unique characteristics and purpose. Our experts can guide you in choosing the perfect Rudraksha combination to suit your needs and bring you closer to your goals. With Rudrajyoothi, you can be assured of the highest quality Rudraksha beads that will elevate your mind, body, and spirit.

Commercially three types of Rudraksh are available: Nepalese, Indonesian and Indian. Of these 75% of Rudraksh are Indonesian origin, 20% Indian & other countries and 5% Nepalese. GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY VOL. 3

Director: James Gunn

Cast: Chriss Pratt, Zoe Saldana, Will Poulter, Karen Gillan, Sean Gunn, Vin Diesel, Dave Bautista

SUDHIR SRINIVASAN

DURING the lowest moments, when life seems to have run out of joys to supply, when there simply seems no point to being up and about, when all people have failed to console, we throw up our arms in despair and turn to the last constructive alternative: Art—specifically, music. Is it not appropriate then that the two characters in Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 3 who are suffocating in such sadness—Peter Quill and Rocket Raccoon—are as eager to escape into music? Director James Gunn, as he did with the previous two Guardians films that burst with such irrepressible energy, shows such great taste in his selection of songs, as always. This third film sets the mood by beginning with an acoustic version of Radiohead's Creep—and really, is there a better song that fits these motley group of rejects who have found solace in each other's company? I'm a weirdo… What the hell am I doing here? I don't belong here. This foundational idea of belonging has always been an integral part of the Guardians films, and this continues with this sequel.

The James Gunn-Guardians films burst with such infectious cinema magic—you know, those specific moments when you sit agape in the presence of audio-visual wonder? An example would be when the filmmaker painted neon art in the second film as Yondu executes a series of entrancing kills using his Yaka arrow. This film begins with a great cinematic moment too (even if wholly in contrast), as Rocket is moping—and occasionally singing along to 'Creep'. It's a great setup and grounds the film in the tragic origins of this character. Without ever becoming saccharine, the film helps us understand why Rocket is the way he is—and more importantly, why the Guardians are so important to him. In perhaps the most affecting scene of the film—and tears streamed down my face—Rocket screams in distress and expresses his agony. In many ways—and this is a word I kept thinking of about this film—the film is clever.

It's a film that is so full of heart, yes, but it's also really clever in how economically and efficiently it uses its emotional ammunition. Take the Rocket breakdown scene, for instance. James Gunn knows that Rocket is opaque for the most part, and hence, he knows the emotional value of such a breakdown scene. Another example is how he plays around with your expectations of the quintessential slow-mo band-of-superheroes walking scene. The first time we get it, it's a subversion. The Guardians, in a slow-mo wide-angle shot, are all looking downcast and purposeless—and James Gunn picks this moment for the title. After what seems like a long time, when we have all but forgotten about it, he grants us the superheroes-slow-mo-walk—but even here, we have a reluctant Gamora who's saving the shot from being another iteration of what we see in every Marvel film. There's always that clever touch.

Which brings me to the Gamora-Quill relationship, another bond in which the film refuses to offer easy pleasures—and tries instead to discover new, more rewarding ways of unearthing emotional depth. Quill sulks a lot—and the film draws humour from it. Slowly, he begins to make peace with the new Gamora, who never seems like a diluted version of the pre-Infinity War version that was sacrificed by Thanos. In case you are confused about the distinction between both Gamoras, James Gunn cleverly drops a rather expository monologue from Quill, but he unearths humour from it. This isn't just Quill sharing information for our benefit; this is the film itself poking fun at him for doing it.

It's a film whose kindness extends beyond thematic exploration. The film itself is kind to its very many characters. It recognises Drax's strengths, and there's a wonderful line that plays with his full name, Drax the Destroyer. While on names, there's a lovely touch about how Rocket becomes Rocket Raccoon—an explanation that reinforces the power of reclaiming identity. There's a great moment for Cosmos, the Spacedog, as well. Yondu's second-in-command Kraglin Obfonteri too comes into his own during an important moment.

Perhaps I am feeling compelled to be a bit too kind to this film on account of such a wholesome theatre experience having become rather rare. If I weren't as kind to this film, I might perhaps talk about the rather chaotic final act in which multiple parties seem to be engaged in battles that aren't exactly easy to follow. But even when complaining about some generic fighting, I'm reminded of that wonderful 'one-take' fight scene in a congested space. Perhaps I could attack the film's not-so-memorable villain, The High Evolutionary—a clear analogy for murderous leaders in human history who were obsessed with the notion of 'purity' and 'perfection'. But even here, the word 'analogy' serves as a reminder of a funny moment in the film when Drax talks about metaphors and analogies. For each problem I might think of, there's a great moment I'd rather be talking about.

RATING 3.5/5

And then, there's all the imagination in full visual glory. A fleshy planet that you must surgically slice through before you behold the icky-saccharine interiors of the Orgocorp Headquarters. The strange-looking human-animal hybrid creatures populating Counter-Earth. I could go on. Suffice it to say that I'm just delighted that the film steers clear of that dastardly multiverse idea that has resulted in wholly forgettable films since Endgame. Let's hope that Marvel takes note of what James Gunn has done for them once again—which, fascinatingly, is his last before he takes over the reins of… DC.
